

Midnight Toker is a New York–based tribute band dedicated to celebrating the timeless music and artistry of the legendary Steve Miller Band. From the smooth, spacey vibes of “Fly Like an Eagle” to the driving rhythms of “Rock’n Me” and the sing-along joy of “The Joker,” Midnight Toker captures the sound, soul, and swagger that made Steve Miller’s music a cornerstone of classic rock. Every performance is a faithful recreation of the hits and deep cuts that defined an era — delivered with exceptional musicianship, dynamic energy, and an obvious love for the groove.

Formed by seasoned New York pros with a shared passion for classic rock’s golden age, Midnight Toker is built on precision, chemistry, and respect for the original material. The band is assembling a lineup of top-tier players who value both musical excellence and the joy of performance — artists who can lock in, harmonize, and make the music soar. Whether on stage at a packed festival or an intimate club, Midnight Toker brings audiences a true Steve Miller experience: vibrant, soulful, and endlessly fun.
