Bishop Ricken's May Intention :

For the living out of the Corporal Works of Mercy:

May we, nourished by the Eucharist, lead lives of charity and service so as to be a Church that goes out joyfully to encounter Christ in all people, most especially in the poor, marginalized, and vulnerable.

Praying for Discipleship

David Martens is in his Discipleship III year and studies at Conception Seminary College and his parish is St. Francis Xavier Cathedral, Green Bay.

What was the first thing that you learned about Jesus?

The first thing I learned about Jesus is that He loves me. He loves me enough to die on the cross for me, to give Himself to me as food in the Eucharist, and even give me His own mother. My parents worked hard to point that out to me during the Mass and visits to the church and continue to do the same for my brothers and sisters.

What is your favorite verse from St. Paul's writings?

Every Thursday evening, the Church meditates on 1 Thessalonians 5:23 during Night Prayer. During my first year of formation, my spiritual director would end our meeting with a blessing which included this verse. Typically, we would meet on Thursdays, so I would end the discussion of the Lord's movements in my life hearing this Pauline blessing, and then I would read it again that night to close the day. Often, we can be tempted to try to do everything to make ourselves perfect in holiness, but at the end of the day, this verse reminds us that it is "the God of peace" who perfects us and preserves our lives. Each time I hear or read this verse, it speaks to me of the integrated nature of the human person and of the Church: spirit, soul, and body, looking forward to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
