All praise to thee, for thou, O King divine,
didst yield the glory that of right was thine,
that in our darkened hearts thy grace might shine. Alleluia!

Thou cam’st to us in lowliness of thought;
by thee the outcast and the poor were sought;
and by thy death was God’s salvation wrought. Alleluia!

Let this mind be in us which was in thee,
who wast a servant that we might be free,
humbling thyself to death on Calvary, Alleluia!

Wherefore, by God’s eternal purpose, thou art high exalted o’er all creatures now, and given the Name to which all knees shall bow. Alleluia!

Let every tongue confess with one accord
in heaven and earth that Jesus Christ is Lord;
and God the Father be by all adored. Alleluia! Amen.

The Opening Acclamation
BCP, p. 355

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Gloria in excelsis
Hymnal S 280

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:1-10

Reader: A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the Lord under Eli. The word of the Lord was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the Lord, where the ark of God was. Then the Lord called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!” and ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call; lie down again.” So he went and lay down. The Lord called again, “Samuel!” Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.” Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. The Lord called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli perceived that the Lord was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, ‘Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the Lord came and stood there, calling as before, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

1 Lord, you have searched me out and known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts from afar.
2 You trace my journeys and my resting-places * and are acquainted with all my ways.
   Antiphon
3 Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, * but you, O LORD, know it altogether.
4 You press upon me behind and before * and lay your hand upon me.
5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; * it is so high that I cannot attain to it.
   Antiphon
12 For you yourself created my inmost parts; * you knit me together in my mother's womb.
13 I will thank you because I am marvelously made; * your works are wonderful, and I know it well.
   Antiphon
14 My body was not hidden from you, * while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.
15 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; * they were fashioned day by day, when as yet there was none of them.
   Antiphon
16 How deep I find your thoughts, O God! * how great is the sum of them!
17 If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; * to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.
   Antiphon

The Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20

Reader: A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

“All things are lawful for me,” but not all things are beneficial. “All things are lawful for me,” but I will not be dominated by anything. “Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food,” and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, “The two shall be one flesh.” But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.
The people who in darkness walked have seen a glorious light;
on them broke forth the heavenly dawn
who dwelt in death and night.

To hail thy rising, Sun of life,
the gathering nations come,
joyous as when the reapers bear their harvest treasures home.

To us the promised Child is born,
to us the Son is given;
him shall the tribes of earth obey,
and all the hosts of heaven.

His name shall be the Prince of Peace
for evermore adored,
the Wonderful, the Counsellor,
the mighty God and Lord.

His power increasing still shall spread,
his reign no end shall know;
justice shall guard his throne above,
and peace abound below.

The Holy Gospel: John 1:43-51

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.” Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth.” Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.” When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, “Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!” Nathanael asked him, “Where did you get to know me?” Jesus answered, “I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you.” Nathanael replied, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!” Jesus answered, “Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.” And he said to him, “Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man.”

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.
The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Prayers of the People, Form VI

The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God. Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;

For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For Joe, our president, for the Congress of the United States, for the courts, our state and local leaders, and this community, the nation, and the world;

For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;

For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;

For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Susan our Bishop; Chris, Lauren, Charlie, and Jan, our clergy; and for all bishops and other ministers;

For all who serve God in his Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation. Silence

We pray for peace, justice, reconciliation, and an end to the wars in Ukraine and Russia and Israel and Gaza.

We pray for our Journey to Asylum family, for all refugees, and for an end to conflicts around the world, especially in the Middle East, Africa, and Central America, and for all who are victims of violence.

We pray for those whose lives and homes have been devastated by natural disasters.

We pray for an end to disease, hunger, and thirst.

We pray for those suffering from the destructive power of addiction.

We pray for the students, faculty, and staff of William & Mary.

We pray for those listed on our parish prayer list and for those whom we name now.

Hear us, Lord;

For your mercy is great.
We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

The People may add their own thanksgivings.

We will exalt you, O God our King;

And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, especially Neville Brice and Harry Ware, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom. Silence

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

Silence may be kept.

Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Absolution & Peace

BCP, p. 360

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Puer nobis

To God the Father, heavenly Light, to Christ, revealed in earthly night, to God the Holy Ghost we raise our equal and unceasing praise.
Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

(Proper Preface)

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.
We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Fraction Anthem

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us,
therefore let us keep the feast.
Alleluia alleluia, alleluia.

Let all mortal flesh keep silence, and with fear and trembling stand; ponder nothing earthly minded, for with blessing in his hand Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary, as of old on earth he stood, Lord of lords in human vesture, in the Body and the Blood he will give to all the faithful his own self for heavenly food.

Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way, as the Light of Light descendeth From the realms of endless day, that the powers of hell may vanish as the darkness clears away.

At his feet the six-winged seraph; cherubim with sleepless eye, veil their faces to the Presence, as with ceaseless voice they cry, “Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, Lord Most High.”

Christ, whose glory fills the skies, Christ the true, the only Light, Sun of Righteousness, arise! Triumph o’er the shades of night: Dayspring from on high, be near; Daystar, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn unaccompanied by thee; joyless is the day’s return, till thy mercy’s beams I see, till they inward light impart, glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine! Pierce the gloom of sin and grief! Fill me, radiancy divine; scatter all my unbelief; more and more thyself display, shining to the perfect day.
Sending Forth of Eucharistic Visitors (9:15)

Celebrant: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ’s body and Blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we share in one bread, one cup.

The Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Hymn 535

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim, and publish abroad his wonderful Name; the Name all-victorious of Jesus extol: his kingdom is glorious; he rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save; and still he is nigh: his presence we have. The great congregation his triumph shall sing, ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.

Salvation to God who sits on the throne! Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son. The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim, fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right: All glory and power, all wisdom and might, and honor and blessing, with angels above, and thanks never-ceasing and infinite love.

Announcements

Coffee Connections will be held today either in the courtyard or the Custis House between the 9:15am and 11:15am services this morning. In addition to coffee, we will have water, food, and fellowship! To volunteer to help with this ministry, please email coffee@brutonparish.org.

2024 Vestry Installation will be held during the 9:15 a.m. service in the church today. Those being installed are Carlyle Campbell, Judi Dorn, Bill Duggle, Sara Fogarty, Joyce Haines, Robyn Hansen, Steve Hibbitts (Treasurer), Randy Hobbs, Diane Howerton, Lori Forcucci Smith, Michael Smith, Lynn Smyth and Sue Warner.

Ribbon Cross Workshop: Women of Bruton invite you to a Ribbon Cross making workshop on Tuesday, January 16, from 10 am to noon upstairs in the Coffee, Tea & Thee of the parish house. No RSVP is needed (just bring scissors). Proceeds from the revenue from Ribbon Crosses, which are sold in the Bruton Shop, enable us to help support local community needs. You will not be expected to make the crosses all by yourself; we have a fun and easy mentoring program which also helps provide a great way to meet others in our parish! If you have any questions, please contact Jeanne Trapani.

Bruton ROMEOs (Retired Outstanding Men Eating Optimally) will meet for lunch at noon (time changed for this event) on Thursday, January 18, at Berrets Seafood Restaurant & Taphouse Grill (199 S. Boundary Street; lunch is typically between $10-14, paid individually). Please commit early by emailing BPC@brutonparish.org by noon on Tuesday, January 16.
350th Anniversary Kick-Off: January 20 & 21 will mark the beginning of a year-long commemoration of the founding of Bruton Parish Church. The first program will be on Saturday, January 20, at 10am in the Parish House with Dr. Carl Lounsbury, Adjunct Assistant Professor at William & Mary, on the architectural and worship history of Bruton entitled “Bruton Parish Church: The Accommodation of Anglican Tradition and Episcopal Worship”. A reception will follow with an opportunity to view an historical exhibition from the CW Rockefeller Library Special Collections. At 11:15am on Sunday, January 21, a special Eucharist will be celebrated using the 1662 prayer book and the Jamestown communion silver (and will also be live-streamed that day).

350th Anniversary Luncheon: Following the 11:15am service in the church on Sunday, January 21, a parishioner colonial-period buffet lunch will be held in the Parish Hall at 12:15pm. Special transportation will be provided for those unable to walk to the Parish House. RSVP and payment for the luncheon must be made by Tuesday, January 16. The cost for the buffet is $10/person, $15/couple and $25/family. Learn more about the details of this parishioner/member buffet by visiting bit.ly/BPC350LUNCH (only 200 seats available).

The Women’s Theological Book Group will be meeting on January 25 at 1pm in Room 206 of the Parish Hall to discuss Not In God’s Name: Confronting Religious Violence by Jonathan Sacks. All women are welcome to join this group. For more information, please contact the Rev. Lauren McDonald (lmcdonald@brutonparish.org.)

Bruton Singles Brunch @ Opus 9: Meet us for brunch on Sunday, January 28, at 12:30pm at the Opus 9 in New Town and catch up with friends and meet new friends. The cost for this celebrated brunch is $39.95 per person. To RSVP, please contact Heidi Elam at singles@brutonparish.org or (757) 897-5012. Hope to see you there!

The Osher Institute of William & Mary will present an hour and a half lecture on three consecutive Tuesdays starting on January 30 from 2:00-3:30 in the church. Led by Anne Conkling and Joe Cross and with an introduction on the Church of England by our Rector, The Rev’d Chris Epperson, the sessions will examine brief overviews of the life of Bruton, from founding of the Middle Plantation to circa 1715 (session #1), Bruton’s path through Revolution to circa 1800 (session #2), through the 19th. century nadir, to realizing Dr. Goodwin’s vision in the 20th century (session #3). If you have any questions, please contact Joe Cross at 757-719-1777 or email wahoke1@gmail.com.

The A/V Ministry is in need of more teams to run the A/V equipment for Sunday services, weddings, funerals, First Friday services and for any other events that call for live-streaming. It is good to have a two-member team with some experience running the A/V equipment, but will train those who will be dedicated to the ministry. Since you will be using church equipment and will have keys to the A/V room, you must be a member of Bruton Parish Church. Please contact Bill Dugge at Bgdugge19@hotmail.com.

The Churchyard is open for Visitation on Wednesdays from 9:30-11am for those who would like to visit loved ones who may be interred there, followed by a Service of Holy Eucharist at 11am, with healing prayer, which continues in-person at the church.
Bruton Parish Gift Shop & Heritage Center: Stop by the Gift Shop and purchase items where proceeds benefit Mission & Outreach (if you’re a member, be sure to wear your nametag for a 10% discount). The latest addition to the exhibits in the Bruton Parish Heritage Center is a monitor displaying a collection of short videos on important people and artifacts from Bruton’s history. An index makes it easy to select something of special interest. It’s one more reason to stop by and explore this valuable resource when you’re in town. It adjoins the Parish Gift Shop where you can find a treasure to take home with you. Both the Shop and Heritage Center are open every day from 11am-5pm.

Friends of Bruton’s purpose is to provide a way for individuals and families, who may live throughout the United States and indeed around the world, to participate in the preservation and promotion of the unique history and spiritual legacy of Bruton Parish Church. Friends of Bruton is open to all who share this vision. Become a Friend of Bruton and a Cornerstone Circle Member by visiting www.brutonparish.org/fobowc, where you can also read the current issue of The Bruton Fount, our quarterly electronic newsletter.

Mission & Outreach

Winter Shelter Sign Up: We still have a few volunteer slots left for overnight, security, breakfast, and checkout for Bruton’s week hosting the Winter Shelter January 28 - February 4. The Sign-up Genius is available at bit.ly/COFMBPC2024. Please contact Larry Zensinger (zenyoda107@gmail.com or 703-298-9874) or Peg Zensinger (mzensinger@gmail.com or 703-346-2651) if you have questions.

Children & Youth Formation

Nursery for newborns through age four is available in the Parish House during the 9:15 and 11:15am services this Sunday. If you have any questions, please contact Meghan Brewer at either mbrewer@brutonparish.org or (252) 347-7078.

Children’s Church will be held this Sunday at 9:15am in St. Mary’s Chapel in the Parish House. Parents are invited to bring their children around 9am, then head to the church for service. Be sure to save them a seat, as they’ll join the congregation during the Peace. Sunday School for children from K-8 grades continues at 10:30am upstairs in the Parish House, and our Children’s Choirs rehearse in the Parish House from 11-11:30am.

Youth Group will be held tonight from 4-5:30pm. We will meet at the Parish House and head over to ice skate, afterwards we will come back for hot chocolate and pizza. Please let Meghan Brewer know if you can attend. We will cover the cost.

COFM Youth Dinner: Please contact Meghan Brewer if you can participate in the youth making dinner for our COFM guests on Friday, February 2, from 5:30-8:30pm. We’ll need hands to make, serve, and clean up afterwards.
Shrove Tuesday is back! Our youth fundraiser will be held this year. We’ll need youth to help set up, cook, serve, and clean up, especially those who intend on participating in this year’s youth mission trip. This is a great way to help raise funds for the trip. Please contact Meghan Brewer if you can help out. Watch for more details!
