

MOUNTAIN CITY CLUB RULES AND REGULATIONS

These Rules and Regulations are established to govern the use of the Facilities at all Mountain City Club properties and to promote the health, safety, welfare, and enjoyment of everyone using the Club Facilities. Management of the Mountain City Club aims to keep these Rules and Regulations to the minimum necessary for all members, designees, immediate family members, and their guests to enjoy the Club Facilities. The primary responsibility for enforcing these Rules and Regulations for the benefit of all users falls on a trained staff whose main duty is to ensure members receive the courtesies, comforts, and services they are entitled to as members of the Mountain City Club. It is always the responsibility of the members to know these Rules and Regulations and to follow them.

ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Each member will be billed by the administrative office of the Mountain City Club, no later than the fifth working day of each month.

Each member will receive a billing statement for any unpaid balance thirty days after the initial billing date. A 1.5% finance charge will be added to the overdue amount from the previous statement.

When the overdue amount, including finance charges, has not been paid by the 53rd day after the initial billing date, the member is deemed financially delinquent. The Club will notify the member by certified mail that privileges will be suspended unless full payment of the account is received or postmarked within 7 days of the notice. Any suspension will remain in effect until the account is paid in full.

Seven days before the 90th day that the account remains unpaid, a certified letter from the Club's General Manager/Chief Operating Officer will notify the member that suspension from the Club will occur if the total balance is not postmarked by the 90th day.

Members may pay with a check, credit card, automatic bank draft, electronic payment, or at the point of sale, monthly. The Board may require the credit card payment option for members with frequent delinquencies. Any member who has had their membership suspended or revoked as a result of disciplinary action, including financial delinquency, may be reinstated upon payment of all outstanding debts and the current initiation fee, subject to approval by the Board.

Any member who has been reinstated after suspension or revocation due to financial delinquency may face permanent revocation if their account remains more than 60 days past due.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

In line with the Club's commitment to maintaining a work environment free from discrimination, the Club enforces a strict policy against harassment and discrimination, including sexual harassment. This policy applies to all Club Members and employees. Additionally, it bans harassment and discrimination in any form, whether verbal or physical.

Employees who violate this policy may face discipline, such as suspension or termination.

Club Members who violate this policy may face expulsion from the Club or other actions deemed appropriate by the Board.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Membership privileges and/or use privileges of any member, designee, immediate family member, or guest may be suspended or terminated by the Board, and other disciplinary actions may be taken as the Board deems appropriate, including but not limited to, the imposition of a fine, if, in the sole judgment of the Board, the member, designee, immediate family member, or guest:

- Submits false information on the Application for Membership Privileges or Application for Use Privileges, which, if it had been truthfully disclosed, would have made the applicant ineligible for membership or use privileges.
- Permits the unauthorized use of a member's or designee's membership, use card, or account.
- Exhibits unsatisfactory behavior, deportment, appearance, or acts in any other manner the Board determines not to be in the best interest of the Club or its members.
- Fails to pay the membership fee, club fees, or any other amount owed to the Club in a proper and timely manner, or habitually fails to do so.
- Fails to comply with these Rules and Regulations established for the use of the Club Facilities;
- Treats the personnel or employees of the Club in an unreasonable or abusive manner, including sexual harassment.
- Engages in conduct that is inappropriate or likely to jeopardize the welfare, safety, harmony, or reputation of the Club or its members.

The Club has determined that the process for suspending or terminating membership or use privileges at the Club is fair and reasonable and will be carried out in good faith. The member, designee, immediate family member, or guest shall be notified of any proposed disciplinary action and will have the opportunity to be heard by the Club (either in writing or in person) to explain why the individual should not be disciplined according to these rules and Club By-Laws.

A member or designee may also face discipline for the actions of their immediate family members and guests. If the individual wishes to be heard, they must submit a written request for a hearing to the Club Manager. The hearing will be conducted before individuals (who may or may not be members of the Club) designated by the Board.

Management personnel of the Club have full authority to enforce these Rules and Regulations; any violations will be reported to the Club Manager and, when appropriate, the Club Board.

The Club reserves the right to update these Rules and Regulations as it deems fit from time to time. All changes must be approved in advance by the Board of Mountain City Club and will become effective once posted at the club.
