"TOGETHER WE ARE STRONGER"

VALUE FOR YOUR INVESTMENT

The AACCNJ builds on the legacy of the National Business League, founded by Booker T. Washington in 1900, and acts as a torch bearer in the marathon to equity and equality. Much like the Negro Business League of the past, the AACCNJ understands that the fight for progress is not fought alone, and that everyone, no matter their race, gender, religion or ethnicity, has a human responsibility to participate in the fight for equality.

Designed to strengthen business relationships and expand access to opportunities, the series will bring together AACCNJ members, corporate partners, business leaders, government, entrepreneurs, and prospective members in engaging environments that encourage meaningful connections. AACCNJ will host virtual forums, and showcases, providing a platform for panelists from specific sectors to provide information about opportunities within their industries/areas of expertise. Members can network and establish new relationships and obtain information and resources that will potentially lead to opportunities which will favorably impact their business.

These events provide an opportunity to have Guest Speakers, from various industries, make presentation on their fields of expertise and/or goods and services. We are seeking to have four of these events in the southern region of the state. These will be corporate sponsored events with themes around topics of mutual interest. Members will have an opportunity to establish new relationships and obtain information and resources that will potentially lead to opportunities which will favorably impact their businesses.
