"TOGETHER WE ARE STRONGER"

VALUE FOR YOUR INVESTMENT

The AACCNJ follows in the footsteps of the Negro Business League, founded by Booker T. Washington in the early 1900's, and acts as a torch bearer in the marathon to equity and equality. Much like the Negro business League of the past the AACCNJ understands that the fight for progress is not fought alone, and that everyone, no matter their race, gender, religion or ethnicity, has a human responsibility to participate in the fight for equality.

The 2024 event was re-branded as the “Juneteenth Black Business Expo” hosted at Fairleigh Dickinson University on the Metro Campus, followed by the 2025 Expo at The College of New Jersey, in Ewing, NJ. Building on this legacy, the event has evolved into the Juneteenth Innovation Expo—an annual platform celebrating ingenuity, industry leadership, and forward-thinking creation across multiple fields. The Juneteenth Innovation Expo now highlights the latest advancements, products, and ideas developed by trailblazers within our community, providing a dynamic space for industry leaders to share, connect, and inspire. This Expo continues the mission of uplifting AACCNJ members while engaging the broader community in a future-focused celebration of Black excellence, innovation, and impact.
