FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE- OCTOBER 28, 2025

African American Chamber of Commerce of New Jersey Welcomes American Management Services as New President's Club Member

(Trenton, NJ, October 28, 2025) — The African American Chamber of Commerce of New Jersey (AACCNJ) is pleased to announce that American Management Services (AMSERV) has joined the Chamber as a President's Club Member, the highest tier of partnership and engagement within the organization. This strategic membership reflects a shared commitment to strengthening economic opportunities, advancing small and mid-sized businesses, and building pathways toward long-term success for diverse entrepreneurs across New Jersey.

Founded in 1986, American Management Services is the nation's leading business consulting firm dedicated exclusively to small and mid-sized companies. With a national team of more than 100 experienced executives, AMSERV works directly with business owners to strengthen cash flow, improve operations, and increase profitability. Serving thousands of businesses across 400+ industries, the firm provides hands-on support that yields lasting operational and financial results. Since 1999, AMSERV continues to help business leaders build more resilient and competitive enterprises.

AACCNJ President and CEO John E. Harmon, Sr., IOM welcomed the partnership, emphasizing its alignment with the Chamber's mission to support and accelerate the growth of Black-owned and minority-owned businesses throughout the state.

"We are honored to welcome American Management Services to our President's Club. Their proven expertise in strengthening business performance aligns with our mission to provide meaningful, measurable value to the companies we serve." — John E. Harmon, Sr., IOM, Founder, President & CEO, AACCNJ

AMSERV expressed enthusiasm in joining the Chamber and supporting efforts that drive community-based economic advancement and business empowerment statewide.

"When the opportunity to partner with the AACC-NJ was presented to us we did not hesitate. Having worked with past Trenton Mayor Doug Palmer for almost twenty years made the transition to John and his team seamless. We look forward to meeting and partnering with as many members as possible and to provide value every step of the way." — Louis Mosca, Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer, American Management Services]

In addition, American Management Services will be featured on AACCNJ's radio program, The Empowerment Hour, on Monday, November 4, at 5:30 PM on 1040 AM (WCHR).

Listeners can tune in on the radio dial or stream live online at: <https://wchram.com/>

As a President's Club Member, AMSERV will receive premium access to the Chamber's statewide network, exclusive leadership roundtables, high-level corporate engagement opportunities, strategic visibility, and concierge membership support. This level of membership reflects a shared understanding of the importance of relationship-building, influence, and expanded business connectivity across New Jersey's public and private sectors.
