FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE- JANUARY 21, 2026

African American Chamber of Commerce of New Jersey Welcomes Structure Tone as New President's Club Member

(Trenton, NJ, January 21, 2026) —The African American Chamber of Commerce of New Jersey (AACCNJ) is pleased to announce that Structure Tone, a leading construction management and general contracting firm, has joined the Chamber as a President's Club Member. This step reflects Structure Tone's ongoing commitment to promoting opportunity, strengthening supplier growth, and cultivating meaningful partnerships within local communities across New Jersey.

Structure Tone is recognized as a premier builder with deep experience managing complex commercial, institutional, and public-sector projects. With a longstanding presence in the region, the firm has built a reputation for delivering safe, high-quality construction outcomes guided by collaboration, sustainability, and workforce development. Structure Tone continues to invest in initiatives that create access for small businesses to compete for and participate in large-scale construction opportunities.

AACCNJ Founder, President & CEO John E. Harmon, Sr., IOM noted that Structure Tone's engagement in the Chamber's highest membership tier supports shared goals for economic inclusion and business expansion statewide.

"Structure Tone's commitment to opening doors for small and minority contractors aligns directly with our mission to create more pathways to wealth-building and industry access."

Their participation strengthens our collective impact across New Jersey.” — John E. Harmon, Sr., IOM, Founder, President & CEO, AACCNJ

Structure Tone expressed excitement in aligning with AACCNJ’s work to connect companies, communities, and new opportunities.

“We are proud to join the AACCNJ President’s Club and look forward to expanding our engagement with small and diverse businesses and community partners throughout the state.” — Michael Farrell, Regional Vice President, Structure Tone

“The AACCNJ has been a tremendous resource in connecting us to many qualified businesses that we may otherwise have never met. We are thrilled to join the President’s Club and continue to build those relationships.” — A’Liah Jackson, MWDBE Regional Associate, Structure Tone

As a President’s Club Member, Structure Tone will receive access to high-level networking forums, corporate roundtables, enhanced statewide visibility, and dedicated membership support designed to strengthen relationship development and strategic impact.
