

Allied Justice Volunteering Programs Framework

Purpose

The purpose of this framework is to provide an overview of volunteering at Allied Justice and detail how our volunteer programs are appropriately supported in alignment with Volunteering Australia's National Standards for Volunteer Involvement (National Standards).

Scope

The Volunteering Programs Framework applies to BGCLS Board, employees and volunteers.

This framework is not intended to override or form part of the terms of the Victorian Community Legal Centres Multi-Enterprise agreement 2024-2027 or any contract that applies to an employee, but should be considered a lawful and reasonable direction to staff, which they are obliged to follow.

Responsibilities

Chief Executive Officer: The CEO is responsible for ensuring the framework aligns with our Strategy and that consultation occurs with the Quality and Governance Committee.

Executive Mangers: It is the responsibility of the Executive Managers to ensure associated policy and procedure decisions are made in accordance with the framework.

Line Managers: It is the responsibility of the line managers to provide feedback on relevant policies and procedures within the context of this framework.

Employees: It is the responsibility of employees to understand, comply with, and seek support from their manager if required.

Framework

Framework Authority: The Volunteer Programs Framework is the responsibility of the CFO.

Feedback: Continuous improvement feedback on the framework and any associated policies and procedures can be provided by employees and volunteers to their relevant line manage for raising with the Leadership Team.

Definitions:

For the purpose of this framework:

 Volunteer refers to someone who provides their time and expertise willingly and without any financial gain. A volunteer is not an employee of, or contractor to, Allied Justic.e

Objectives

Allied Justice has provided community legal services to the community for over 35-years. Our region currently encompasses 11 Local Government Areas from Bacchus Marsh to the South Australian border.

With the expressed purpose of changing life stories through better access to justice, our organisational values are:

- Respect we are respectful without judgement.
- Courage we have the courage to do what is necessary.
- Empowerment we empower actions that make an impact.
- Kindness we extend kindness to all.

These values guide the expectation of how we will interact and work with community members and our clients, our stakeholders and our colleagues, including our volunteers.

The core problems we seek to solve through our strategic plans and activities and community legal service delivery are:

- 1. The legal needs of the region we serve
- 2. Family violence
- 3. Organisational sustainability and growth

Our volunteering programs will seek to positively impact these core problems and our strategic aims.

Intention

The aim of our volunteer programs is to increase our capacity to successfully respond to our core problems and deliver our strategic goals.

The time and expertise that our volunteers contribute will increase our ability to provide needed legal assistance services across our region and increase our organisational knowledge.

In turn we will aim to provide opportunities that support the needs and motivations of our volunteers and any supporting organisations.

Allied Justice welcomes and actively seeks volunteers from varied backgrounds and experiences, recognising that an organisation that reflects the diversity in our community is better able to respond to and serve that community.

Volunteering Opportunities

As a community legal service, we provide legal assistance services to both individuals and the community, our service is currently funded to provide legal services in the following areas of law:

- Family Violence
- Family Law
- · Credit, debts, fines or infringements
- Uninsured motor vehicle accidents
- Renting and tenancy
- Victims of Crime
- Climate and Disaster Justice
- Power of Attorney/Guardianship (limited circumstances)
