Thing*

STRENGTH IN COMMUNICATION

Never have FOMO (fear of missing out)

We keep our members informed and inspired. Members stay connected via our website and social media sites.

STRENGTH IN COMMUNITY

The Chaldean Community Foundation funds a variety of charitable programs and helps refugees acculturate to the U.S. while providing therapy, job placement and scholarships.

The Chaldean News reports news in the community and seeks to inform and educate its readers and connect the community as a whole.

The Ark Angel Fund was created to support early start-up businesses and make investments in emerging companies that will make a difference in this region. The Fund is invite-only to accredited investors and is managed by a wholly owned subsidiary of the Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce.

STRENGTH IN COMMITMENT

The Chaldean Young Professionals Network

Where young entrepreneurs, recent graduates, and experienced professionals come together to promote education and unity, while encouraging the entrepreneur spirit and work ethic for which Chaldeans are known.

The Chaldean Women's Committee

Promotes educational and professional opportunities for Chaldean women. The committee helps to lead, inspire, and mentor women through networking events and provides resources for financial and social support services.

STRENGTH IN ADVOCACY

The Chaldean Chamber Political Action Committee (PAC) is tasked with enhancing the community influence in Lansing on issues that affect the Chaldean community and business. The mission is to put community and member concerns foremost in legislator's minds.

The Civil Liberties Advocates (CLA) mission is to serve as community champions and mediators on matters of alleged discriminatory practices. The vision is to fight against ethnoreligious bigotry while securing fair and just negotiated resolutions.
