RECONCILIATION AND RESTORATION

We are but clay pots, easily fractured. In our brokenness we reach out to God, joining in a confession of our sins.

God of Reconciliation, we confess that our good intentions don't always become faithful actions.

We turn inward and are more attentive to our own needs than the needs of our neighbors.

We cling to burdens you never asked us to carry alone, instead of bringing them into your care.

Open our hearts to your ways of mercy, truth, and shared life, so that we may be reconciled to you, to one another, and to the world you love.

Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

Beloved of God, hear this Good News: by God's abundant grace your sins are forgiven. You are held, restored, and made whole.

As we are reconciled to God, we are drawn into reconciliation with one another. So let that reconciling love settle among us now, and let it shape the way we live, as we share a greeting of peace with one another.

BLESSING OF PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

Please share a blessing of peace with others around you.

O God, Our Help in Ages Past

ELW #632

You are invited to face the cross as it enters.

1 O God, our help in a - ges past, our hope for years to come,
 2 Un - der the shad - ow of your throne your saints have dwelt se - cure;
 3 Be - fore the hills in or - der stood or earth re - ceived its frame,
 4 A thou - sand a - ges in your sight are like an eve - ning gone, our shel - ter from the storm - y blast, and our e - ter - nal home:

 suf - fi - cient is your arm a - lone, and our de - fense is sure.
 from ev - er - last - ing you are God, to end - less years the same.
 short as the watch that ends the night be - fore the ris - ing sun.

5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 bears all our years away;
 they fly forgotten, as a dream
 dies at the op'ning day.

6 O God, our help in ages past,
 our hope for years to come,
 still be our guard while troubles last and our eternal home.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor Gary Sandberg

Merciful God, the fountain of living water, you quench our thirst and wash away our sin. Give us this water always. Bring us to drink from the well that flows with the beauty of your truth through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LENTEN PSALM

Psalm 95

Let us shout for joy to the rock of our sal - va - tion.

¹ Come, let us sing to the LORD; let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

² Let us come before God's presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to the LORD with psalms.

³ For you, LORD, are a great God, and a great ruler above all gods.

⁴ In your hand are the caverns of the earth; the heights of the hills are also yours.

Let us shout for joy to the rock of our sal - va - tion.

⁵ The sea is yours, for you made it, and your hands have molded the dry land.

⁶ Come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

⁷ For the LORD is our God, and we are the people of God's pasture and the sheep of God's hand.

Oh, that today you would hear God's voice!

⁸ "Harden not your hearts, as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert.

Let us shout for joy to the rock of our sal - va - tion.

⁹ There your ancestors tested me, they put me to the test, though they had seen my works.

¹⁰ Forty years I loathed that generation, saying,

'The heart of this people goes astray; they do not know my ways.'

¹¹ Indeed I swore in my anger, 'They shall never come to my rest.'

Let us shout for joy to the rock of our sal - va - tion.

✠ WORD ✠

As we prepare to hear God's Word proclaimed, you are encouraged during this time to consider places in your life where you need, or desire, to engage in Reconciliation, whether in your own spirit, or in a relationship. You are invited to write this down on a Reconciled and Restored sheet in your pew. You may then place your sheet in the offering plate later in the service. Do not sign them. They will not be read by staff. This is for your personal offering to God.

Today you might consider being reconciled by acknowledging those times when you do not welcome people in a positive way.

LESSON

Romans 5:1-11

Paul Rodeck

Though we often hear that God helps those who help themselves, here Paul tells us that through Jesus' death God helps utterly helpless sinners. Since we who had been enemies are reconciled to God in the cross, we now live in hope for our final salvation.

¹ Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. ³ And not only that, but we also boast in our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, ⁴ and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵ and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

⁶ For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person - though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. ⁸ But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. ⁹ Much more surely, therefore, since we have now been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. ¹⁰ For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. ¹¹ But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

LENTEN VERSE

Let your stead - fast love come to us, O Lord.

Save us as you prom - ised; we will trust your word.

The Holy Gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

⁵ Jesus came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon. ⁷ A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." ⁸ (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) ⁹ The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) ¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." ¹¹ The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?" ¹² Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" ¹³ Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴ but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." ¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back." ¹⁷ The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband,' ¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!" ¹⁹ The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet." ²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem." ²¹ Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But the hour is coming and is now here when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. ²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." ²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us." ²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you." ²⁷ Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you speaking with her?" ²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, ²⁹ "Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?" ³⁰ They left the city and were on their way to him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you O Christ.

How I Love Your Word

Mark Hayes

Brian Stinar, tenor

*I love your word, it give me light, it guides me through the darkest night.
Your law is perfect in every way, how I love your word.
Sweeter than the honeycomb, more precious than finest gold, your word gives life to me.
When I am frightened, you calm my fears. When I am troubled, your word is clear
That in every moment you are here. Your word brings peace to me.
I choose to follow your commands. Your ways I want to understand.
I long to learn all that I can from the wisdom in your word.
Your words I treasure deep within. They comfort me and discipline
That I may have no cause to sin. Your word brings righteousness.*
