RECONCILIATION AND RESTORATION

We are but clay pots, easily fractured. In our brokenness we reach out to God, joining in a confession of our sins.

God of Reconciliation, we confess that our good intentions don't always become faithful actions.

We turn inward and are more attentive to our own needs than the needs of our neighbors.

We cling to burdens you never asked us to carry alone, instead of bringing them into your care.

Open our hearts to your ways of mercy, truth, and shared life, so that we may be reconciled to you, to one another, and to the world you love.

Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest."

Beloved of God, hear this Good News: by God's abundant grace your sins are forgiven. You are held, restored, and made whole.

As we are reconciled to God, we are drawn into reconciliation with one another. So let this forgiveness settle among us now, and let it shape the way we live, as we share a greeting of peace with one another.

BLESSING OF PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always. And also with you.

Please share a blessing of peace with others around you.

GREETING

Pastor Gary Sandberg

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

KYRIE

In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor Gary Sandberg

Almighty God, your Son came into the world to free us all from sin and death. Breathe upon us the power of your Spirit, that we may be raised to new life in Christ and serve you in righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Please be seated.

✠ WORD ✠

As we prepare to hear God's Word proclaimed, you are encouraged during this time to consider places in your life where you need, or desire, to engage in Reconciliation, whether in your own spirit, or in a relationship. You are invited to write this down on a Reconciled and Restored sheet in your pew. You may then place your sheet in the offering plate later in the service. Do not sign them. They will not be read by staff. This is for your personal offering to God.

This week you might consider how you wish to restore what you have pushed aside or put off.

LESSON

Psalm 130

Koren Holden

- ¹ Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord;
² O Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.
³ If you were to keep watch over sins, O Lord, who could stand?
⁴ Yet with you is forgiveness, in order that you may be feared.
⁵ I wait for you, O Lord; my soul waits; in your word is my hope.
⁶ My soul waits for the Lord more than those who keep watch for the morning, more than those who keep watch for the morning.
⁷ O Israel, wait for the Lord, for with the Lord there is steadfast love; with the Lord there is plenteous redemption.
⁸ For the Lord shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

LENTEN VERSE

Let your stead - fast love come to us, O Lord.

Save us as you prom - ised; we will trust your word.

¹ Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ² Mary was the one who anointed the Lord with perfume and wiped his feet with her hair; her brother Lazarus was ill. ³ So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, he whom you love is ill.” ⁴ But when Jesus heard it, he said, “This illness does not lead to death; rather, it is for God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” ⁵ Accordingly, though Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus, ⁶ after having heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was.

⁷ Then after this he said to the disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.” ⁸ The disciples said to him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and are you going there again?” ⁹ Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours of daylight? Those who walk during the day do not stumble because they see the light of this world. ¹⁰ But those who walk at night stumble because the light is not in them.” ¹¹ After saying this, he told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to awaken him.” ¹² The disciples said to him, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be all right.” ¹³ Jesus, however, had been speaking about his death, but they thought that he was referring merely to sleep. ¹⁴ Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. ¹⁵ For your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.” ¹⁶ Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with him.”

¹⁷ When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. ¹⁸ Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, some two miles away, ¹⁹ and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. ²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary stayed at home. ²¹ Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.” ²³ Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” ²⁴ Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.” ²⁵ Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?” ²⁷ She said to him, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.”

²⁸ When she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary and told her privately, “The Teacher is here and is calling for you.” ²⁹ And when she heard it, she got up quickly and went to him. ³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet come to the village but was still at the place where Martha had met him. ³¹ The Jews who were with her in the house consoling her saw Mary get up quickly and go out. They followed her because they thought that she was going to the tomb to weep there. ³² When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. ³⁴ He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” ³⁵ Jesus began to weep. ³⁶ So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” ³⁷ But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

³⁸ Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?” ⁴¹ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. ⁴² I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” ⁴³ When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” ⁴⁴ The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

⁴⁵ Many of the Jews, therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what Jesus did believed in him.

WELCOME TO THE LORD'S TABLE

CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy...
...we praise your name and join in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high-est, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na in the high-est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

BLESSING OF THE BREAD AND WINE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION DISTRIBUTION

Receive communion by dipping the bread into the wine. Pre-packaged communion sets are alcohol free; gluten-free options are available. Groups are welcome to visit a communion station together. Those who are not receiving communion are invited to cross their arms across their chest to receive a blessing.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

DISMISSAL

Pastor Nate Preisinger

As we go forth into the week ahead we remember our calling as the people of Bethany.

Together we will:

Worship and encounter a God who loves us;
Embrace healthy dialogue that promotes unity over division;
Respond to the needs of the world through generosity and action.

With this as our mission, go in peace, serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

United in Faith: Building Bethany's Future is a comprehensive initiative to steward what God has given us into the decades ahead. This campaign synthesizes overdue facility renewal with strategic improvements that will strengthen ministry, welcome new generations, and support deeper engagement.

At its heart, this plan is guided by three commitments. The commitment we will focus on this weekend is CARING FOR CRITICAL SYSTEMS. Roofing, mechanical systems, lighting, and infrastructure have served well beyond their expected lifespan. Bethany will repair and strengthen essential systems proactively, reducing long-term risk and creating stability for ministries to continue without disruption. We will establish proactive maintenance planning and increase our maintenance reserves to ensure our resources are optimally used.

ADDRESSING NECESSARY INFRASTRUCTURE AND MAINTENANCE $500,000-$700,000

Faithful stewardship includes caring for critical systems that support everything Bethany does. Roofing, HVAC control systems, and security infrastructure have exceeded their intended lifespan and require proactive attention. Addressing these needs with an integrated multi-year work plan is more cost-effective, reduces long-term risk, prevents costly emergency repairs, and provides operational stability.

ENSURING FACILITIES STEWARDSHIP $500,000-$1,000,000

In keeping with best practices for facilities management, Bethany will materially increase its Deferred Maintenance account in order to better provide for the proactive upkeep of its facilities. Bethany will establish a rolling capital maintenance and improvement schedule to optimize use of our resources and better provide for large capital items.

CREATING SUSTAINABLE AND RESPONSIBLE ENVIRONMENTS $500,000-$600,000

Bethany is committed to caring for creation and stewarding resources wisely. This portion of the campaign focuses on improving energy efficiency and long-term operational sustainability. Improvements include continued replacement of lighting with energy-efficient LED fixtures. The installation of solar panels designed to significantly reduce annual energy costs is being explored.

GENEROSITY THAT STARTS WITH GOD

When our church invites us to give, our first instinct may be to check with our spouse, our budget, our bills, or our financial advisor. These are wise steps—but for people of faith, they are not the first step.

God is alive, active, and deeply engaged with us. God is our Maker, Redeemer, Sustainer, and Friend. Our giving grows out of our relationship with God. As we spend time in prayer, scripture, and worship, we begin to see our lives and resources through God's eyes.

John 3:16 offers the clearest picture of divine generosity: "For God so loved the world that God gave..." God's giving flows from God's love and connection with the world. When we draw near to God, that love shapes our hearts. We give not from pressure, but from gratitude and compassion.

The closer we walk with God, the more we notice the needs around us. Our priorities shift, and generosity becomes a natural response. We share our time, talents, and treasures because they reflect the heart of God alive in us.

So before deciding what to give, begin with prayer. Ask God to guide you into generosity that comes from a living, growing relationship—and watch how that relationship transforms your giving and your life.
