Purpose of Organization or Mission Statement and Services Rendered:

Safe Passage is Kentucky's leading organization in the fight to end child trafficking. Founded in 2018, we help sexually trafficked children exit dangerous situations, and work to prevent other children from harm. Our holistic approach uses prevention programs to fortify youth against predators and identify undiscovered victims, while our long-term mentorship and support services work to help victims find safety and healing. Mentorship not only helps survivors reclaim their lives but also prevents future challenges, as these youth are guided toward a healthier path, reducing their reliance on social programs and benefiting society as a whole.

In addition to mentorship, we run robust prevention programs that educate both youth and those who work directly with them—teachers, police officers, and other frontline workers—on recognizing the signs of grooming and exploitation. By empowering youth with knowledge and equipping professionals with the tools to intervene early, Safe Passage helps stop trafficking before it begins, creating safer communities and protecting more children from harm.

Amount Requested: $15,000

Statement of Need for Project

Many children in Kentucky are at risk of child trafficking. According to the National Center on Safe Supportive Learning Environments, three of the biggest risk factors for child trafficking of all types are involvement in the child welfare system, history of traumatic childhood events like abuse and neglect, and personal/familial use of drugs. In 2023, there were 50,947 youth in Kentucky's child welfare system, and of the identified trafficking cases in Kentucky, 94% of victims have a history within this system. Kentucky also ranks in the top 5 for child abuse and neglect, in the top 10 for heroin and opioid abuse, and in the top 10 for methamphetamine use.

Research from the University of Kentucky and the University of Louisville has shown that trafficked youth are often left without the specialized support they need after their exploitation ends. These children frequently turn to drugs, self-harm, and illegal activities as they try to cope with their trauma, which leaves them vulnerable to further exploitation and trafficking. These children need specialized services to heal and rebuild their lives.

Addressing these challenges requires a twofold approach. Preventative efforts need to be made to engage with children in Kentucky's child welfare system or otherwise at risk to help prevent trafficking from occurring. Mentoring and support services are needed for those who have been exploited in the past to help prevent cycles of exploitation. Safe Passage has been building these services in Kentucky since 2018, but needs additional funding to engage more youth who have been or are at risk of exploitation.

Proposed Use of Funds to Remediate the Need

Safe Passage Inc. will expand its mentorship services for youth who are survivors of child sex trafficking in Oldham County, as well as expand preventative programs to reduce the likelihood of exploitation. The proposed budget will cover the necessary operational, logistical, and support costs for providing high-quality mentorship, ongoing support services, and prevention programs. Specifically, funds will be allocated to support staff, training volunteer mentors, and direct assistance to youth enrolled in the program.

Proposed Use of Funds:

1. Salaries for Safe Passage Employees

Funding from this proposal will help cover salaries for several Safe Passage employees. Additional stipend funding is requested to expand Training Facilitator availability. They are responsible for coordinating, designing, and leading trauma-informed training for volunteer mentors. Additionally, funds will be used to offset hours needed to expand outreach to potential partner organizations, underserved communities, and other parties to identify and serve more children facing exploitation.

2. Volunteer Mentor Training and Support

Funds will be used to help offset costs associated with providing trauma-informed and specialized training to volunteer mentors. This includes materials, guest speakers, certifications, and ongoing development opportunities.

3. Training Materials and Resources

Additionally, purchase of mentorship materials, curriculum, and resources that guide mentoring sessions, including journals, workbooks, and activity kits tailored to trauma recovery.

4. Travel and Transportation Costs

Transportation expenses include costs incurred by program staff in the process of expanding and delivering prevention, mentoring, and support services.

5. Mentee Support

Funding will be utilized for the provision of essential items and services for mentees as needed, especially those in transition or in crisis situations. These needs include food, clothing, equine therapy, survivor peer-support retreats, curriculum for preventative and support services, and other expenses associated with delivering care to mentees.

6. Events and Activities

Lastly, the costs of organizing group events, workshops, and community-building activities for mentees will be offset. These events and activities foster connections between peers and mentors/mentees while also providing educational or therapeutic value.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Martin
