ABOUT THE VENUE

Bangpop is a large, colourful open space that immediately takes you from South Wharf to the heart of Thailand. BangPop recreates the energy and excitement of Bangkok's hawker stands, presenting authentic and succulent Thai dishes all made with seasonal ingredients sourced locally or straight from Thailand. The long bench style seating is ideal for large groups, and communal dining.

THE MENU

The best way to enjoy all the menus has to offer, is to share with your fellow diners. We have created several menus that give you the best taste experience, from the betel leaves to start, through to the sticky rice to finish. Wash it all done with a selection of local Thai beers, or our extensive Thai inspired cocktails.

GROUP DINING & EVENTS

Bangpop can be booked exclusively for large events up to 200 people standing, or 80 people seated. Our seated menus feature several choices of sharing menus and set menus designed to cater for any style of lunch or dinner. The island bar is perfectly positioned for exclusive use cocktail parties, and we pair all our authentic Thai canapés with our large selection of carefully crafted cocktails.

If you're looking for something different to do with your group, try a Thai cooking class, and master the art of the perfect Pad Thai – our signature dish.
