- c. Anointing of the Sick Mass/Lunch, September 6: 75 received the sacrament, 82 total, Fr. was pleased with the Mass and lunch
- d. Connie, were you able to talk donuts with Dunkin? No. She will follow up for our October meeting.
- e. Any funeral luncheon updates to share? High praise from the families for the delicious food and support from the parish. THANK YOU funeral dinner team!!!!

3. Upcoming events

- a. Euchre Night: October 18 6-9pm Amy will check with Sabrina to see if the youth would offer a free will offering dinner. An article will be submitted for the bulletin and registration created in Flocknote.
- b. Trunk or Treat October 25th following 4pm Mass: Amy will get an article into the bulletin inviting the kids to wear appropriate costumes to Mass and ask the parishioners to bring candy to hand out from their car. The Knights are on board to grill hotdogs and marshmallows for smores.
- c. Trivia Night November 15 6-9pm Amy will get an article into the bulletin and registration created in Flocknote
- d. Are there any events we want to offer the first quarter of 2026? We are thinking of a craft, games or cards on a Saturday, late morning so people would be willing to drive to the church during the day and finish before 4:00pm Mass.
- e. Deacon, anything you are working on with the homebound you'd like to share? Deacon Stan shared the numbers at the various care centers and his plan going forward to reach the homebound and widows/widowers. Good things are in the works!! He is looking to offer the Grief Program as well.
