

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. 1. Why should I prepare for my child's Baptism?

Baptism is ESSENTIAL for receiving and living out God's gift of salvation (John 3: 5). This Sacrament is God's offer of friendship to human beings, which is sealed and lived as a faith-based covenantal relationship with God and the community of God's friends, the Church. As parents, you will be entering into this covenantal friendship with God on behalf of your child. The Baptism Preparation Program will help you develop a deeper appreciation of God's gift of the Sacrament of Baptism as friendship, as well as the commitment you are making to raise your baptized child in the Catholic Faith. It will also enable you to celebrate and live out the baptismal rite in a more meaningful and engaging way.

Q. 2 How do I get my child baptized at St. John XXIII Parish?

Parents are to attend the baptism preparation program before a date for the Baptism can be scheduled (except in extreme, life and death circumstances).

Q. 3 Do I need to be a registered member of St. John XXIII to have my child baptized at the Parish? NO! However, to baptize your child at our Parish, parents must complete the Baptism preparation process.

Q. 4 Are both parents required to attend the Baptism Class?

Yes, both Catholic parents (if they have custody of the child) are required to attend the class. The primary purpose of the class is only to register for the baptism preparation process, determine the parents' intention to raise the child in the Catholic faith, discuss the parents' own friendship with Christ and the Catholic Church, and answer any remaining questions or concerns that parents might have.

Q. 5. Are godparents/sponsors required to attend baptismal preparation class?

We highly recommend and strongly encourage that the Godparent/sponsor attend the class if they live in the area, but this is not required. If Godparents will not attend the preparation class we still need a Godparent form with the parish seal from their home parish.

Q. 6. How much does it cost to baptize my child?

The Church does not charge for the sacramental preparation and celebration.

Q. 7 Do parents and godparents need to attend a preparation program again when another child is to be baptized? If parents have completed Baptism preparation class in the past three years, then they are not required to attend the class. If four or more years have passed since they attended the class, then they need to attend the class again in order to have their new child baptized.

Q. 8 Can a non-Catholic Christian be a Godparent/sponsor?

No. Only a practicing Catholic who meets the qualifications can be a godparent or sponsor. However, a non-Catholic, baptized Christian who participates in the Baptism and accepts responsibility for helping raise the child to live a Christian life can participate in the Rite of Baptism as a "Christian Witness". Note: A Christian who was baptized and confirmed Catholic and now practices in another Christian tradition can neither be a godparent /sponsor nor a Christian Witness. The Church requires at least one godparent who is a practicing, confirmed Catholic age 16 or older.

Q. 9 Can a brother or sister be a Godparent/sponsor?

Brothers or sisters of a child to be baptized may be Godparents/sponsors provided that they have completed their 16th year of life, be Confirmed Catholic, and have the aptitude and intention of fulfilling this function.

Q. 10 If the godparents are not validly married in the Catholic Church, can they be godparents? The chosen godparent(s) does not need to be a married person. However, if the chosen godparent is married (whether to another Catholic or to a non-Catholic), then they must be validly married in the Catholic Church in order to be chosen as a godparent.

Q. 11. If the parents are not validly married in the Catholic Church, can the child be baptized?

YES! There is nothing that prevents a child born to parents who are not validly married in the Catholic Church from being baptized. The Catholic Church welcomes with open arms your decision to baptize your child in the faith. As such, you may wish to discuss having your marriage convalidated (recognized) by the Catholic Church, please contact Fr. Richmond Dzekoe (DBQ227@dbqarch.org) or 319-846-3139

Q. 12. If the parents are not married, can the child be baptized?

Nothing prevents a child born to parents who are not married from being baptized within the Catholic Church provided that the parent(s) of that child is/are properly disposed, has/have been appropriately prepared, understand(s) the responsibilities that come with having the child baptized and is/are willing to fulfill the commitment undertaken to raise the child in the rich principles of the Catholic faith. Also, at any time, if you would like to discuss preparing for marriage, please contact Fr. Richmond Dzekoe (DBQ227@dbqarch.org) or 319-846-3139
