Stepping Stone Ministries is Ready to Open

Bismarck Nonprofit is ready to open a year after devastating fire.

BISMARCK, N.D. - After a plan altering fire in October 2024, Stepping Stone Ministries is set to open in a newly renovated building designed for medical respite come Oct. “[Since] we were so close in the other building, the last 8 months we have had laser focus,” says Sr. Idelle, CEO of Stepping Stone Ministries. The Grand Opening celebration on Sept 28 is open to the public. From 1-4 p.m. those in attendance can tour the new building and see the walls that will provide a safe home of healing for those in the community.

A private ribbon cutting ceremony with community partners will take place on Monday Sept 29, 3:30 p.m.

Stepping Stone Ministries is a medical respite center that provides a safe place of healing and support for people experiencing homelessness and need for medical recuperative care. We strive to not only help individuals heal but connect them to resources that lead to safety and stability.
