ST. PETER'S CHILDREN & FAMILIES

In this season of thanksgiving, it is easy to get swept up in the joy we feel spending time with family and friends, sharing food with those in need, and acknowledging our blessings out loud. How can we carry that feeling of joy and gratitude beyond this season? How do we teach our children to be grateful and thankful for all that they have?
According to Jackie Aviles, in her blog post "Teaching Kids Gratitude God's Way", it takes "creating intentional rhythms in your home that point to God." I encourage you to check out her blog post (linked here) and follow St. Peter's families on Facebook all month long for practical ways to create these intentional rhythms that will carry you beyond this season and throughout the whole year. https://women.lifeway.com/2025/11/20/teaching-kids-gratitude-gods-way/

FAITH FORUM

Sunday, 9:30 am - Stockstill Hall

The Christian tradition is full of special people who are looked up to as examples of exceptional faithfulness. In commemoration of All Saints Day and All Souls Day, Faith Forum will devote three Sundays to the significance of this "Communion of Saints", many of whom still speak to us today.

November 1: The children's Sunday School Classes will join Faith Forum for an intergenerational study of saints. We will hear a Godly Play story introducing us to some lesser-known saints, followed by table discussions about these holy men and women and how we are working to be saints, too.
November 8: Different denominations view sainthood through different theological lenses. Dotti Priddy will introduce a brief history of the commemoration of saints, followed by a special emphasis on the Episcopal church and its saints (some of whom might surprise you).
November 15: Ken Shabel will discuss the moral lessons portrayed in the St. Peters' Players production of Charlotte's Web.
November 22: The Vestry Communications Committee will provide updates on SP30, St. Peter's long range plan for 2030. Bring questions.
November 29: No Faith Forum - Please join the Family Advent Wreath activity in Stockstill Hall.

Creation Care Corner – November 2026

Give Thanks for the Creation – Our parish recently celebrated the Season of Creation, a rich time of reflecting on God's goodness to us in the natural world. As we approach the holiday of Thanksgiving this month, consider nurturing feelings of gratitude for creation. This could be as simple as taking a contemplative walk in the woods or even just sitting in your backyard and noticing the elements of creation around you. For a more communal approach, consider joining our local Spirituality In Nature Group (SING) that meets at Paris Mountain State Park on the first Sunday of the month from 3:30-5:00 (contact Donna Scott for more information; donnalscott58@gmail.com).

Jerry and Christine Scmidt

The Schmidts have jumped feet first into the St. Peter's community, bringing an incredible mix of talents, experiences, and enthusiasm!

Chef Jerry traded architecture for cooking, graduating at the top of his class from the Culinary Institute of America. His impressive career includes cooking at Epcot's French pavilion, training at the renowned Le Cirque, serving as Executive Chef at prestigious private clubs, and preparing dinners at the White House. Now retired, Jerry enjoys cooking, gardening, fishing, hunting, and scuba diving.

Christine has enjoyed a wonderfully diverse career, from delivering mail for the U.S. Navy to working in banking, television, and the performing arts. A talented singer-songwriter, she once had the opportunity to sign with legendary Sun Records. She has also dedicated years to community service as a Rotarian and volunteer leader.

The couple found their way to St. Peter's in January 2025, when Christine attended a dear friend's funeral. The kindness of Father Chuck and Beck Sullivan made her feel welcome, and she soon joined the choir. At the recent Parish Picnic, Jerry shared his culinary talents by smoking six Boston butts while Christine delighted everyone with her music.

Watch for upcoming dining and fundraising events featuring Jerry and Christine as they share their wonderful gifts with St. Peter's!

Installation day for Rev. Sarah Carver as the new Chaplain on The Peace of the Holy Comforter Chapter of The Order of the Daughters of the King. Mother Saras was installed as Chaplain on September 12, 2026. She is pictured here with the Daughters who were present: Kathy Greenan, Ginger Strong-Tidman, Trudy Bennett, Bobbie Nichols, Sherrill Mortenson, Carolyn Foster, Beck Sullivan, and Susan Kear. We look forward to working with Mother Sarah for the benefit of the Parish.

The Peace of the Holy Comforter Chapter met on October 10 to craft some crosses for the Sunday school classrooms and nursery. The Daughters spent the morning in conversation and work to make sure that there would be a visual reminder in every learning space at St. Peter's.
