After moving to a new city, Tim is the outcast at school. A talented striker, Tim joins the soccer team but is outshined by another newcomer: Tariq, a refugee from Syria. Despite all differences, the two boys soon realize they have more in common than they think.

The German-Canadian Congress, in collaboration with the General Consulate Toronto and the Goethe Institute Montreal, cordially invite you to join us for the free screening of Zu weit weg (Too Far Away; German 2019, 92 min.) on the occasion of German Heritage Month on Monday, October 19, at 7 p.m. at 100 Arthur Street (Artspace Building).

Directed by Sarah Winkenstette, Zu weit weg tells the story of Tim who, after moving to a new city, is the outcast at school. A talented striker, Tim joins the soccer team but is outshined by another newcomer: Tariq, a refugee from Syria. Despite all differences, the two boys soon realize they have more in common than they think.

Please be advised that the movie does not have English subtitles and will be presented in the original German-language version. Admission is free, but we kindly ask you to reserve your seat by scanning the attached QR code or by following this link:
