ASCH 2022 Special Events At A Glance

Women's Breakfast

Friday, January 7th, 8:30 AM - 10:00 AM ($25, $15 for students) / Tower Room

The Women's Breakfast is an opportunity for women scholars attending ASCH to gather for conversation and connection. This year's meeting will be hosted by President-Elect Anthea Butler, and held in honor of Past-President Elizabeth Clark. Pre-registration required.

COVID Precautions: Seating will be flexible to accommodate social distancing while eating. Please wear your mask when not eating. Limited food options will be portable if you'd rather eat elsewhere.

Walking Tour of New Orleans Religious Sites

Friday, January 7th, 1:30 PM - 4:30 PM

A diversity of religion runs through the historic streets of New Orleans. This year's tour will visit the embodiment of that history, featuring a venerable basilica, its associated convent, two parish churches built to serve different populations, and the town square of the enslaved population. Join us for a walk through history. Led by Dr. Daniel Sack, this three-mile walking tour will depart the hotel lobby at 1:30 PM. Please pre-register by emailing asch@churchhistory.org.

Society Awards Luncheon

Friday, January 7th, 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM ($30) / Riverbend Ballroom

This special lunch is an opportunity for us to come together as a community to celebrate our prizewinners, as well as to hear special presentations about the mission of the ASCH from our Presidential leadership team. You are warmly encouraged to attend. Register when you purchase your conference registration, or (if you have already registered) by emailing Andrew Hansen (andrew.hansen@churchhistory.org). Pre-registration required.

COVID Precautions: Seating will be spaced to allow for 6' of social distance and the meal will be plated. Please wear your mask when not eating.

ASCH Business Meeting and Presidential Address

Saturday, January 8th, 6:00 PM - 7:30 PM / Magnolia III

Following the annual ASCH Business Meeting (6:00-6:15 PM), Dr. Daniel Ramírez, President of the ASCH and Associate Professor of Religion at Claremont Graduate University will give the Presidential Address (6:30-7:30 PM). The title of Professor Ramirez's address is "Puritans, Padres, and Pentecostals: Shifting Perspectives in Church History."

Presidential Reception

Saturday, January 8th, 7:30 PM - 9:30 PM / Riverbend Ballroom

Immediately following the Presidential Address will be a sumptuous reception with lots of hors d'oeuvres and drinks. All conference attendees are invited – come and enjoy!

COVID Precautions: An attached outdoor terrace will be available for those who prefer to be outdoors. Additional table attendants will be at serving tables to reduce self-serving. Please wear your mask when not eating. Strategies in place to reduce crowds in lines, etc.
