“Do You Love Me?”By Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Three times, Jesus asked Simon Peter: “Do you love me?” (John 21:16). This is the same Peter who earlier had sworn three times that, even if everyone else deserted Jesus, he never would. He was so sure of himself. Now, realizing the unreliability of his loyalty to Jesus, Peter is not so quick to answer with such self-confidence. Note that Peter did not reply with a straightforward “Yes!” Rather, he amplified each response with the telling words, “You know...”. With these words, Peter acknowledged that Jesus could read his mind and heart, that Jesus knew Peter’s genuine love of him despite his all-too-human weakness. This itself was an act of faith.

This simple exchange did not humiliate Peter. That was not Jesus’ way. They both understood what Peter had done, and they both knew how brokenhearted it had left him. Peter was humbled—not by Jesus but by the recognition of his own human frailty. Despite this, or perhaps because of it, Jesus commissioned Peter to be leader among his followers. Another person might have chosen a more reliable man. However, there is great strength and wisdom in a leader who has learned from experience how circumstances might cause otherwise brave people to turn their backs on their responsibilities and run from danger. Such a leader will challenge while being compassionate and stand firm while being understanding. This is the kind of leader Jesus chose, for he knew that Peter would be that kind of leader.

Peter was humbled—not by Jesus but by the recognition of his own human frailty.

“¿Me amas?”

Por Hna. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Tres veces, Jesús le preguntó a Simón Pedro: “¿Me amas?” (Juan 21:16). Este es el mismo Pedro que antes había jurado tres veces que, aunque todos los demás abandonaran a Jesús, él nunca lo haría. Estaba tan seguro de sí mismo. Ahora, al darse cuenta de la incertidumbre de su lealtad a Jesús, Pedro no se apresura a responder con tanta seguridad. Cabe destacar que Pedro no respondió con un simple “¡Sí!”. Más bien, amplificó cada respuesta con las contundentes palabras: “Sabes...”. Con estas palabras, Pedro reconoció que Jesús podía leer su mente y su corazón, que Jesús conocía su amor genuino a pesar de su debilidad humana. Esto en sí mismo fue un acto de fe.

Este simple intercambio no humilló a Pedro. Ese no era el estilo de Jesús. Ambos comprendieron lo que Pedro había hecho y ambos sabían lo destrozado que estaba. Pedro se sintió humillado, no por Jesús, sino por el reconocimiento de su propia fragilidad humana. A pesar de esto, o quizás debido a ello, Jesús encargó a Pedro ser líder entre sus seguidores. Otra persona podría haber elegido a un hombre más confiable. Sin embargo, hay gran fuerza y sabiduría en un líder que ha aprendido por experiencia cómo las circunstancias pueden llevar a personas, por lo demás valientes, a dar la espalda a sus responsabilidades y huir del peligro. Un líder así desafiará a la vez que será compasivo, y se mantendrá firme a la vez que comprensivo. Este es el tipo de líder que Jesús eligió, pues sabía que Pedro sería ese tipo de líder.

Pedro se sintió humillado, no por Jesús, sino por el reconocimiento de su propia fragilidad humana.
