“Different Gifts, Service, and Workings”

By Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Paul’s choice of words, found in his instruction to the Corinthians, is telling. Gifts refer to certain actions of the Holy Spirit; service is assistance within the community; and workings point to the dynamic power of God. Together, these realities might raise questions, such as, What do I have? What can I do? How can I do it? This is the lesson of Pentecost.

We all possess remarkable gifts and abilities, some of which we might not even know we have until we are called upon to exercise them. Many interpreters think Paul was referring here to the extraordinary spiritual gifts that became obvious during liturgical services— gifts like speaking in tongues. However, he expands this list to include gifts such as teaching, generosity, and acting with mercy. (See Romans 12:6–8.) Many of us possess these gifts.

As for service, all we have to do is look around to find people in our families, our parishes, and our workplaces who need our help, even if it is simple and limited. We cannot excuse ourselves by thinking, I can’t. I don’t have what it takes.

The feast we celebrate today reminds us that we have been given the power of the Holy Spirit, working through our gifts and talents, to serve others. Everyone can do something; everyone must do something. Paul underscores this with the image of the body, which is made up of different parts. Either we work together doing what we can, or the entire body suffers.

Remember, we have the power of the Spirit.

We have been given the power of the Holy Spirit, working through our gifts and talents, to serve others.

Don't Take a Vacation from Mass This Summer!

Summer is a time for rest, travel, and fun—but our relationship with God doesn't take a break. Whether you're at the beach, visiting family, or enjoying a staycation, the Mass is always the most important part of our week. Here's why staying connected to Sunday Mass matters:

- ◇ God doesn't stop loving us in the summer—we stay rooted in that love through the Eucharist.
- ◇ The Mass strengthens us for whatever the week brings—travel, work, family, or fun.
- ◇ Mass is celebrated everywhere! No matter where you are, there's a Catholic church nearby.

Going away? Use www.masstimes.org to find a Catholic church near your destination.

This summer, let's keep the Lord's Day holy—and encourage one another to keep Christ at the center of every season.

“Diferentes Dones, Servicio y Obras”

Por Hna. Dianne Bergant, CSA

La elección de palabras de Pablo, que se encuentra en su instrucción a los corintios, es reveladora. Los dones se refieren a ciertas acciones del Espíritu Santo; el servicio es la asistencia dentro de la comunidad; y las obras apuntan al poder dinámico de Dios. Juntas, estas realidades pueden suscitar preguntas como: ¿Qué tengo? ¿Qué puedo hacer? ¿Cómo puedo hacerlo? Esta es la lección de Pentecostés.

Todos poseemos dones y habilidades extraordinarios, algunos de los cuales quizás ni siquiera sepamos que tenemos hasta que se nos llama a ejercerlos. Muchos intérpretes piensan que Pablo se refería aquí a los extraordinarios dones espirituales que se hacían evidentes durante los servicios litúrgicos, como el hablar en lenguas. Sin embargo, amplía esta lista para incluir dones como la enseñanza, la generosidad y la misericordia (véase Romanos 12:6-8). Muchos de nosotros poseemos estos dones.

En cuanto al servicio, solo tenemos que buscar a nuestro alrededor para encontrar personas en nuestras familias, parroquias y lugares de trabajo que necesiten nuestra ayuda, aunque sea simple y limitada. No podemos excusarnos pensando: «No puedo. No tengo lo que se necesita».

La fiesta que celebramos hoy nos recuerda que hemos recibido el poder del Espíritu Santo, que obra a través de nuestros dones y talentos para servir a los demás. Todos pueden hacer algo; todos deben hacer algo. Pablo lo subraya con la imagen del cuerpo, que está compuesto de diferentes partes. O trabajamos juntos haciendo lo que podemos, o todo el cuerpo sufre. Recuerden, tenemos el poder del Espíritu.

Hemos recibido el poder del Espíritu Santo, que obra a través de nuestros dones y talentos para servir a los demás.

¡No te tomes vacaciones de la Misa este verano!

El verano es tiempo de descanso, viajes y diversión, pero nuestra relación con Dios no se toma un descanso. Ya sea que estés en la playa, visitando a la familia o disfrutando de unas vacaciones en casa, la Misa siempre es el momento más importante de nuestra semana. Por eso es importante mantenernos conectados con la Misa dominical:

- ◇ Dios no deja de amarnos en verano; nos mantenemos arraigados en ese amor a través de la Eucaristía.
- ◇ La Misa nos fortalece para lo que nos traiga la semana: viajes, trabajo, familia o diversión.
- ◇ ¡La Misa se celebra en todas partes! No importa dónde estés, hay una iglesia católica cerca.

¿Te vas de viaje? Usa www.masstimes.org para encontrar una iglesia católica cerca de tu destino. Este verano, santifiquemos el Domingo del Señor y animémonos unos a otros a mantener a Cristo en el centro de cada temporada.
