“What Is a Soul, If Not...?”

By Fr. Joseph Juknialis

The Gospel of Matthew warns that the greater danger is not about those who may kill the body, but about those who can destroy both body and soul. Indeed, what if our soul dies long before our body dies? What then has become of our living?

Henry David Thoreau spent a year at Walden Pond in 1845. He did not go to escape life, he said, but to preserve it, to live it more fully. “I went to the woods because I wished to live deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life, and see if I could not learn what it had to teach, and not when I came to die, discover that I had not lived,” he wrote in Walden in 1854. “I did not wish to live what was not life, living is so dear, nor did I wish to practice resignation, unless it was quite necessary. I wanted to live deep and suck out all the marrow of life, to live so sturdily and Spartan-like as to put to rout all that was not life.”

To have a soul is not as if some otherworldly reality has been given a home in our body. Rather, to have a soul is to have a source of hope even in the face of failure, to love in imitation of Jesus even when we are not loved, to see goodness even when it is hidden, to trust in God even when we are powerless. It is the source of mystery, of all that is transcendent, the home of all that is holy.

To have a soul is to have a source of hope.

“¿Qué es el alma, sino...?”

Por el Padre Joseph Juknialis

El Evangelio de Mateo advierte que el mayor peligro no proviene de quienes pueden matar el cuerpo, sino de aquellos capaces de destruir tanto el cuerpo como el alma. En efecto, ¿qué sucede si nuestra alma muere mucho antes que nuestro cuerpo? ¿Qué ha sido entonces de nuestra vida? Henry David Thoreau pasó un año en Walden Pond en 1845. No fue allí para escapar de la vida, decía, sino para preservarla, para vivirla más plenamente. “Fui a los bosques porque quería vivir deliberadamente, afrontar solo los hechos esenciales de la vida y ver si podía aprender lo que ella tenía que enseñar, para no descubrir, al llegar la hora de morir, que no había vivido”, escribió en Walden en 1854. “No quería vivir lo que no fuera vida —pues vivir es algo muy valioso—, ni quería practicar la resignación, a menos que fuera estrictamente necesario. Quería vivir con profundidad y extraer todo el tuétano de la vida; vivir con tal firmeza y austeridad espartana que pudiera ahuyentar todo aquello que no fuera vida”.

Tener alma no significa que una realidad de otro mundo haya encontrado morada en nuestro cuerpo. Más bien, tener alma es poseer una fuente de esperanza incluso ante el fracaso, amar imitando a Jesús aun cuando no somos amados, ver el bien incluso cuando está oculto y confiar en Dios aun cuando nos sentimos impotentes. Es la fuente del misterio, de todo lo trascendente; el hogar de todo lo sagrado.

Tener alma es tener una fuente de esperanza.

Don't Take a Vacation from Mass This Summer!

Summer is a time for rest, travel, and fun—but our relationship with God doesn't take a break. Whether you're at the beach, visiting family, or enjoying a staycation, the Mass is always the most important part of our week. Here's why staying connected to Sunday Mass matters:

- ◇ God doesn't stop loving us in the summer—we stay rooted in that love through the Eucharist.
- ◇ The Mass strengthens us for whatever the week brings—travel, work, family, or fun.
- ◇ Mass is celebrated everywhere! No matter where you are, there's a Catholic church nearby.

Going away? Use www.masstimes.org to find a Catholic church near your destination.

This summer, let's keep the Lord's Day holy—and encourage one another to keep Christ at the center of every season.

IN THE ONE, WE ARE ONE

IN ILLO UNO UNUM

This weekend, as we come together to make our commitments to the Diocesan Services Fund (DSF), we celebrate our unity in Christ. In the One, We are One reminds us that our shared faith becomes action through service, formation, and care for those in need. When we give together, we strengthen the Church's mission and shine the light of Christ in our community. Let our response today reflect our trust in God and our love for one another.

Este fin de semana, al reunirnos para hacer nuestros compromisos con el Fondo de Servicios Diocesanos (DSF), celebramos nuestra unidad en Cristo. En El Uno, Somos Uno nos recuerda que nuestra fe compartida se convierte en acción a través del servicio, la formación y el cuidado de quienes lo necesitan. Cuando damos juntos, fortalecemos la misión de la Iglesia y hacemos brillar la luz de Cristo en nuestra comunidad. Que nuestra respuesta hoy refleje nuestra confianza en Dios y nuestro amor los unos por los otros.
