“Our Story”

By Mary Katherine Deeley

What was it like in those years after the crucifixion? What was it like to talk about an experience and a relationship unlike anything ever encountered? What was it like to go to jail for preaching what you described as good news even though it seemed foolish to many of those who were listening? Saint Paul saw it in terms of a race whose finish line was heaven and for which he was willing to spend his last ounce of energy. Saint Peter saw that once he acknowledged who Jesus was, he had no choice but to proclaim the truth of his heart. He knew Jesus was the Messiah because he saw it in the look of those who were healed, fed, and restored at Christ's hand. He experienced it in the love Christ gave him, even after he denied Jesus at his trial. He saw it in the faces of those whom he healed in Christ's name and who eagerly came to baptism and the outpouring of the Spirit.

What is it like now? How do we know that Jesus is the Messiah in our hearts? And how has that made a difference in our lives? Is this relationship so unlike any other that we are willing to be poured out, to spend our energy, to proclaim the Good News even though it may seem foolish? It's an uncomfortable question for many Catholics today. For many of us, religion and faith are private matters, and sometimes that helps us avoid arguments or endless debate. But the compelling story of our redemption begs to be told, if not in words, then in lives transformed. This is our story and our race to be run full out to the very last.

The compelling story of our redemption begs to be told.

Don't Take a Vacation from Mass This Summer!

Summer is a time for rest, travel, and fun—but our relationship with God doesn't take a break. Whether you're at the beach, visiting family, or enjoying a staycation, the Mass is always the most important part of our week. Here's why staying connected to Sunday Mass matters:

- ◇ God doesn't stop loving us in the summer—we stay rooted in that love through the Eucharist.
- ◇ The Mass strengthens us for whatever the week brings—travel, work, family, or fun.
- ◇ Mass is celebrated everywhere! No matter where you are, there's a Catholic church nearby.

Going away? Use www.masstimes.org to find a Catholic church near your destination.

This summer, let's keep the Lord's Day holy—and encourage one another to keep Christ at the center of every season.

“Nuestra Historia”

Por Mary Katherine Deeley

¿Cómo fueron esos años después de la crucifixión? ¿Cómo fue hablar de una experiencia y una relación sin igual? ¿Cómo fue ir a la cárcel por predicar lo que describiste como buenas noticias, aunque a muchos de los que te escuchaban les pareciera una tontería? San Pablo lo vio como una carrera cuya meta era el cielo y por la que estaba dispuesto a gastar hasta la última gota de energía. San Pedro vio que, una vez que reconoció quién era Jesús, no tuvo más remedio que proclamar la verdad de su corazón. Sabía que Jesús era el Mesías porque lo vio en la mirada de quienes fueron sanados, alimentados y restaurados por Cristo. Lo experimentó en el amor que Cristo le dio, incluso después de negar a Jesús en su juicio. Lo vio en los rostros de aquellos a quienes sanó en el nombre de Cristo y que acudieron con entusiasmo al bautismo y al derramamiento del Espíritu.

¿Cómo es ahora? ¿Cómo sabemos que Jesús es el Mesías en nuestros corazones? ¿Y cómo ha marcado eso una diferencia en nuestras vidas? ¿Es esta relación tan diferente a cualquier otra que estamos dispuestos a entregarnos, a gastar nuestras energías, a proclamar la Buena Nueva aunque parezca una tontería? Es una pregunta incómoda para muchos católicos hoy en día. Para muchos de nosotros, la religión y la fe son asuntos privados, y a veces eso nos ayuda a evitar discusiones o debates interminables. Pero la cautivadora historia de nuestra redención clama a gritos ser contada, si no con palabras, al menos con vidas transformadas. Esta es nuestra historia y nuestra carrera, que debemos correr con todas nuestras fuerzas hasta el final.

¡No te tomes vacaciones de la Misa este verano!

El verano es tiempo de descanso, viajes y diversión, pero nuestra relación con Dios no se toma un descanso. Ya sea que estés en la playa, visitando a la familia o disfrutando de unas vacaciones en casa, la Misa siempre es el momento más importante de nuestra semana. Por eso es importante mantenernos conectados con la Misa dominical:

- ◇ Dios no deja de amarnos en verano; nos mantenemos arraigados en ese amor a través de la Eucaristía.
- ◇ La Misa nos fortalece para lo que nos traiga la semana: viajes, trabajo, familia o diversión.
- ◇ ¡La Misa se celebra en todas partes! No importa dónde estés, hay una iglesia católica cerca.

¿Te vas de viaje? Usa www.masstimes.org para encontrar una iglesia católica cerca de tu destino. Este verano, santifiquemos el Domingo del Señor y animémonos unos a otros a mantener a Cristo en el centro de cada temporada.

Clama con ALEGRÍA AL SEÑOR!
