“The Jesus Question”

By Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Over the years, I've asked many people what they believe about Jesus and who he is for them. I've always nudged them away from the expected answer simply because I was interested in who he was for them down deep in their spirits. It's been a whole wheelbarrow full of answers, yes it has, a full and varied garden. Some said they thought he was a very good human being, though they hedged when I asked if they thought he was also of God. Others thought he was a prophet, though they also backed away from anything that hinted of the divine. For some, Jesus was God dressed in human skin, as if he were simply playing at being human. Some labeled him a reformer, and others a teacher. None of them dismissed Jesus as irrelevant or a remnant of the past. And for many, Jesus is the truth professed by Peter: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” He is the Word made flesh, the wisdom of God among us, the one who lives.

In one way or another, all of us must answer the question Jesus asks of his disciples in today's gospel: “Who do you say that I am?” The question is just as relevant today as it was when Jesus asked it. For some, their yes is without doubt. For others, it is a questioning journey of coming to faith. All of us are faced with that question: Who is Jesus for us today in the way we live our lives?

All of us must answer the question Jesus asks: “Who do you say that I am?”

“La pregunta sobre Jesús”Por el P. Joseph Juknialis

A lo largo de los años, he preguntado a muchas personas qué creen acerca de Jesús y quién es él para ellas. Siempre he procurado que evitaran la respuesta convencional, simplemente porque me interesaba saber quién era él para ellas en lo más profundo de su espíritu. He recibido una gran variedad de respuestas; un auténtico jardín, rico y diverso. Algunos opinaban que era un ser humano excelente, aunque vacilaban cuando les preguntaba si creían que también provenía de Dios. Otros lo consideraban un profeta, pero se mostraban reticentes ante cualquier cosa que sugiriera divinidad. Para algunos, Jesús era Dios revestido de piel humana, como si simplemente estuviera fingiendo ser humano. Hubo quienes lo calificaron de reformador y otros de maestro. Nadie lo descartó como alguien irrelevante o una reliquia del pasado. Y para muchos, Jesús es la verdad proclamada por Pedro: “Tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo del Dios viviente”. Él es el Verbo hecho carne, la sabiduría de Dios entre nosotros, aquel que vive.

De una forma u otra, todos debemos responder a la pregunta que Jesús les hace a sus discípulos en el evangelio de hoy: “¿Quién decís que soy yo?”. Esta pregunta sigue siendo tan relevante hoy como cuando Jesús la formuló por primera vez. Para algunos, su respuesta afirmativa es indudable. Para otros, se trata de un camino de búsqueda y cuestionamiento hacia la fe. Todos nos enfrentamos a esa misma pregunta: ¿quién es Jesús para nosotros hoy, en la manera en que vivimos nuestras vidas?

Todos debemos responder a la pregunta que Jesús hace: “¿Quién decís vosotros que soy yo?”.
