"Yes or No?"

By Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Confronted by a social obligation I would prefer to avoid, I frequently find myself musing that the timing is right for me to break a leg or get the flu. Yet more often than not, once I go, I find myself enjoying the gathering. Not all invitations are exciting or even desirable, but many become the building blocks of our lives.

When the parable of Jesus tells of an invitation to come to a wedding feast, it's really a story of our invitation to the kingdom of heaven, where, if we accept, we will dwell in the divine presence and enjoy the peace, joy, and love of God. Heaven is not only where we are but also how we are. It's an invitation to deeper and richer life—a taste of heaven, even in this life.

So it's good to consider going where we'd rather not go. It's not simply about social gatherings, though a social gathering may be the event where you meet the person you fall in love with. It also may mean going for counseling when that may be a bit scary, or confronting one's addiction, or moving to a new city, or accepting serious and lifelong illness, or saying yes to having a child with special needs, or not getting the job you hoped for. Saying yes to what life brings may be the wedding garment that enriches our lives. It may be saying yes to God.

Saying yes to what life brings may be the wedding garment that enriches our lives.

"¿Si o no?"

Por el P. Joseph Juknialis

Ante un compromiso social que preferiría evitar, a menudo pienso que sería un buen momento para romperme una pierna o contraer gripe. Sin embargo, la mayoría de las veces, una vez que asisto, termino disfrutando de la reunión. No todas las invitaciones son emocionantes o siquiera deseables, pero muchas se convierten en los cimientos de nuestra vida.

Cuando la parábola de Jesús relata la invitación a un banquete de bodas, en realidad nos habla de nuestra invitación al reino de los cielos; allí, si aceptamos, habitaremos en la presencia divina y gozaremos de la paz, la alegría y el amor de Dios. El cielo no es solo un lugar donde estamos, sino también un estado del ser. Es una invitación a una vida más profunda y plena: un anticipo del cielo, incluso en esta vida.

Por eso, vale la pena considerar ir a aquellos lugares a los que preferiríamos no ir. No se trata simplemente de reuniones sociales, aunque una de ellas podría ser el escenario donde conozcas a la persona de la que te enamores. También puede significar buscar ayuda terapéutica cuando esto nos da cierto miedo, afrontar una adicción, mudarse a una ciudad nueva, aceptar una enfermedad grave y crónica, decir que sí a tener un hijo con necesidades especiales o no conseguir el empleo que esperábamos. Decir que sí a lo que la vida nos depara puede ser el traje de boda que enriquece nuestra existencia. Puede ser, en definitiva, decirle que sí a Dios.

Decir que sí a lo que la vida nos depara puede ser el traje de boda que enriquece nuestra existencia.
