This morning we will be celebrating the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In order for this celebration to be helpful to us, the scriptures call us to examine ourselves. The reason for this self-examination is to verify that we do belong to God and His people, and in this way avoid God's judgment on us. (I Corinthians 11:23-29). So to all who can give the following testimony, we extend a sincere invitation to come with gladness to the table of the Lord and take part in this celebration of the Lord's Supper.

I am a sinner and truly sorry before God for my sins.

I trust in Jesus Christ alone for my salvation.

I desire to lead a godly life with Christ as Lord.

I am a baptized member in good standing in a Christian Church.

Hebrews 2:18

Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Psalms 119:9,11

How can a young man keep his way pure? By living according to your word....I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you.

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

John 14:21

Whoever has My commands and obeys them, he is the one who loves Me. He who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I too will love him, and show Myself to him.
