Pentecost Sunday

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday the Easter season draws to a close with the celebration of Pentecost! On Ascension Jesus promised to send a helper and a guide. After nine days of waiting and prayer, the Holy Spirit descended upon those gathered in the upper room. This nine days of waiting and prayer (origin of the novena) prepared them for the coming of the Spirit.

Today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit and the “birthday” of the church. We pray that each of us and, indeed, all people may be open to God’s powerful active presence in the world. As the first Christians were enlightened and empowered to proclaim faith in Jesus, the Holy Spirit is still active in our world. Our broken and often violent world desperately needs people of vision and faith to proclaim and witness to God’s life-giving Spirit!

We pray that we may be open to and cooperate with God’s life-giving Spirit. God sometimes calls us in unexpected and uncomfortable ways. We pray for the grace to respond with open hands and heart. Can you discern at least one concrete action God is calling you to this Pentecost?

There are approximately 2.38 billion professed Christians in our world. Imagine if we all could lovingly profess our faith in word and action. Just imagine!

May we continue to pray for ourselves, our community, our nation and our world. Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Come, Holy Spirit, Come!
