The Most Holy Trinity

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate a unique and powerful mystery of our Christian Faith: God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit; the Trinity. The powerful and dynamic love relationship between the person's of the Holy Trinity has burst forth as all of creation. All of creation, including each one of us, is created and held in creation by God's love! What an inspiring and miraculous mystery!

As we begin and end our prayer with the powerful sign of the cross, we invoke the most Holy Trinity. The doxology invokes, with gratitude, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We have been truly blessed by our triune God! As Catholic Christians may we seek to reflect the love of our triune God who created, saved and is continually transforming us through His grace.

Soon we will be welcoming Rev. Peter T. Amaya-Akpala, OP, to the Catholic Communities of Eastern Broome and as a chaplain at UHS hospitals. At times, we will still have other priests with us for weekend liturgies. I know that you will welcome Fr. Peter and warmly embrace him as a member of our parish communities. I'm sure that we will be greatly blessed by his priestly ministry and look forward to working with him in meeting the pastoral needs of our parishioners. His ministry will ensure our continuity as Eucharistic Communities and we will be greatly blessed by his presence.

We pray for his safe travel, arrival and openhearted welcome in our midst.

In the name of the most holy Trinity, may we continue to pray for each other, our communities, our nation and our world.

Blessings,

Barbara Kane

CALLED BY NAME

The Syracuse Diocese recently began the “Called By Name” program. This is a program which encourages parishioners to identify anyone who they feel may have a vocation as a priest, deacon or consecrated religious. One of the most important parts of vocational discernment is when “the call” is seen and recognized by others. We ask you to prayerfully consider this opportunity to provide encouragement to someone.

Names can be submitted to the parish on a “Called by Name” card. The parish will then forward the information to the diocesan vocation office who will follow-up. Called by Name cards are green in color and are available at the church entrances. Please complete the information and return it to the parish. Thank you for your input.
