SEEK THE LORD!

Time is knocking at our door, eternity is standing before us.

A great event is about to take place.

The Lord Jesus Christ is coming again.

He is coming in the same manner that He went away.

Taken from Return to Pentecost. Return to the Anointing in the vintage H. Richard Hall booklet titled: "God's Flaming Prophets Bring Ordained Revival."

To portray TRUE PENTECOST we must:
Stand without fear and declare the true identity of Jesus.

Speak His name (Jesus) without blushing.
Declare the UNDILUTED Word of the Lord without stammering.

Sin must be called by its name from the pulpit and in our every walk of life.

The cover must be removed.

Boldness must embrace us fully, insomuch, that all fear of death or persecution is removed from us.

Signs must follow the ministry and the gifts of the Spirit must be in operation.

The fruit of the Spirit must be displayed.

We must possess a willingness to witness to one individual or to multitudes.

We should return to much fasting and prayer.

Know the voice of God: Heed to His first command and be covered completely with the blood and be in contact with Him.

Run! Tarry not! Into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

"Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins" (Is. 58:1).

The question to be answered is: What must I do to return to True Pentecost?

The answer is in the Bible. "Return, O Israel, saith the Lord, return unto me . . ." (Jere. 4:1). Return to a real hunger and thirst for God. Return to the anointing.

What will be your decision? Are you willing to admit you have wandered away from the deep calling of God? Have you lost your burden for the people? Have you sold your deep anointing for a morsel of bread or a moment of contentment? Have you compromised with the Word of God and twisted it to fit your own life? Have you led people into a dark alley and left them alone to wander aimlessly? Have you delivered your sheep to the wolves to be devoured?

Will you return to God? Will you put into practice again the anointing of the Lord, which was once upon you, in such a manner that devils would flee as you plead the blood of Jesus and lost souls would run to the altar for refuge as you declared the LIVING WORD of the Lord?

Let us hold hands and march forth and conquer the world with revival! Let our voices blend together as one great voice for Jesus!

UCCMA PRESIDENT

UCCMA 2025 Annual Ministers Convention is behind us. We met many new friends and I was delighted and blessed to see many old friends come to be with us this year. Each service was “God-touched.” Ministers and laypersons worshipped and moved in the anointing. I was thrilled as we witnessed the Power of the Lord come down again and again. Our God is faithful! Please man and woman of God—make plans now to attend the 2026 Convention. It’s not just for ministers—it’s for everyone! The date is June 29—July 3, 2026.

As we rapidly move into the last quarter of 2025, soon the mornings will be cooler, and the leaves will turn a beautiful gold, vibrant purple, or startling red. It’s a perfect time to slow down for a moment and reflect on how God has moved in our lives and in the ministry this year. The Bible encourages us to reflect on our lives, seek wisdom, and trust in God’s plan. I hear the voice of the Lord say, “Look ahead!”

We know God’s timing is perfect. Sometimes it’s difficult to grasp. But it’s important to remember that everything happens according to God’s plan. If we will trust in the Lord with all our hearts and do not lean on our own understanding, and in all our ways acknowledge Him—HE will direct our paths! (see Prov. 3:5-6).

In the book of James, we are encouraged to ask God for wisdom, and He will generously provide it. As we look to the new year this “Godly wisdom” will help us make good decisions and navigate these uncertain times.

God has plans for us! Jeremiah 29:11 emphasizes God’s faithfulness, His intention to bring about good, and the hope He provides for the future. When you feel alone and rudderless, remember that God sees a future, and YOU ARE IN IT! You are prospering! He sees it right now! Can you see it? Close your eyes and imagine the wonderful future the God of the universe has in store for you. It’s a place of peace, not evil, but good! We must keep these promises in mind as we move forward.

We must remember that we are God’s handiwork, created to do good works which God has prepared in advance for us to do! As you read this article, please stop right here. Close your eyes for just a moment. Now stretch out your arms and grasp the future God has planned for you. Pull it to yourself (as I am doing right now). Now declare to yourself and to the Lord that you will fulfill the calling He has placed in your life! No matter the hiccups, no matter the setbacks, we must march ahead with purpose, knowing God has plans for us (see Eph. 2:10).

Lastly, we must encourage one another. Fellowshiping with our brothers and sisters in Christ can strengthen our faith and encourage us as we endeavor to win souls, see them sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost, and join in this mighty army of God. Love one another, keep the faith, and fulfill the Lord’s plans for you—until He comes.

WHO WILL GO?

Don Warren

PAST UCCMA PRESIDENT

“I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me” (Isaiah 6:8). Always the chosen of God are instructed, whether by vision, dream, an angel or the Bible, to abide in the Word and to speak “Thus saith the Lord.”

This entire ministry started on instructions from the Lord and continues today with the same directive: We must exhaust every means available to reach every man, woman, boy and girl for Jesus. “For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his soul?” (Mark 8:36). Heaven is eternal and hell is forever.

We must reach the lost at any cost. “Go out and win. Rescue from sin.” Some see the winning of souls as another notch on their ministry belt or as another member sitting on their pews. But folks, this is not a church growth outreach. We are not trying to just fill pews—we hear the voice of the Lord saying, “RESCUE THE PERISHING!”

“Rescue the perishing, care for the dying,

Snatch them in pity
from sin and the grave;
Weep o’er the erring one,
lift up the fallen,
Tell them of Jesus,
the mighty to save.”

This work has always been a labor of love and a work of faith. Let us combine our efforts in this great end-time work of God. We cannot—we will not stop. We will not even slow down. We must reach for the lost. For your son, your daughter, your husband—your loved ones. We must reach for those we do not know. We must get this message out—Jesus is mighty to save!

Some are blessed and ordained of God to be ministers of preaching, healing and deliverance. Others are blessed and ordained of God to be ministers of finance. God grants prosperity and success. God expects and demands that you support His work and His ministers with your tithes and offerings. He will honor and reward you.

Giving to the Lord’s work is related to receiving from Him. Trust God with what you have and He will trust you with what He has.

Will you go or will you help send me and those associated with me to go into all the world and preach the gospel. We must cry aloud and spare not.

I personally appeal to you to help us in this great work of God. You can help us in your prayers and with your tithes and offerings. We need your help. We cannot carry this load by ourselves. I know after you pray about this, you will do as the Lord leads you.

Help us in this great work in the following ways:

- Pray for us without ceasing.
- Trust us with your tithes and offerings that will be used for the glory of God.

Write us a letter today and let us know we do not stand alone in this work of faith and labor of love.

*From the late UCCMA President
Don Warren’s archives.*

Though Bro. Don Warren has gone on to be with the Lord, the challenge remains the same. We must do more for Jesus. We must give more to promote His gospel and reach the lost in this changing hour of time. These and much more we must do. If it falls on the shoulders of a few, then we shall not fail. We will do it! So God help us!

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

DANNY EMERSON

UCCMA VICE PRESIDENT - CUCC PASTOR

As Jesus sat up on the mount of Olives, the disciples came to Jesus privately, because they wanted to know, What would be the signs of Jesus coming? And what would be the signs of the end of the world?

In Matthew 24, Jesus gave them some of the signs to look for, so they would know His coming was near.

He told them of, “wars and rumours of wars,” and He said that “nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.”

He also told them “because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.”

In October 2022, there were 3145 earthquakes within 30 days.

About a week ago, I looked the same stats, and I found that in the past 30 days, there have been 52,451 quakes (with magnitudes up to 8.8).

These earthquakes have been in diverse places, just as Jesus predicted.

The news is filled with wars continually—and talk of more. Ukraine, Russia, Israel, Palestine, Iran, and even the U.S. are all in the headlines.

Some of the events Jesus foretold are happening right before our eyes.

I truly believe we are living in the end time.

Other things are taking place today, that the Bible foretold.

2 Timothy 3:1 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

We can see these traits in a greater measure than we have ever seen them before.

Not long ago, we experienced something most of us had never experienced—when we were plagued by COVID-19.

COVID-19 has officially claimed 5 million lives, but credible estimates place the pandemic’s true death toll closer to 17 million. Either count secures COVID-19’s position on our list of history’s deadliest plagues. Again, Jesus told us “pestilences” are one of the signs of His coming and of the end of the world.

The Good News is—in the midst of all the turmoil of this old world...

Romans 5:20

...But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

Is there Hope for me???

If you are a child of God, the grace of God is enough to keep and protect you...

No matter what comes against you!

When we see the signs of the times, it’s so important to put our trust in the Lord.

It’s so important to make sure we are right with God! It’s so important to know you are a child of God filled with The Holy Ghost!

The Holy Ghost will guide you in all truth. (See Jn 16:13).

As a child of God, YOU ARE UNDER GOD’S PROTECTION!

Psalms 91:1 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I believe we are in a time when God will pour out the “latter rain” about which Joel prophesied! (2:23). In preparation for the return of Jesus!

Remember the words of Jesus:

Luke 21:28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh!

REVIVAL CRY

“Blow the Trumpet
In Zion!” (Joel 2:1)

The hour is late. The call is urgent. The harvest is waiting.

Oh God, stir us for revival! Impart to us spiritual gifts for service. Anoint us to pray without ceasing. Make our eyes wells of repentant tears. Give us a burning desire to reach the lost—at any cost.

We are entering the final years of this age. Only one thing truly matters: The Salvation of Souls.

We must rise to the challenge. We must prioritize the distribution of Christian literature and the preaching of the gospel.

“Awake thou that sleepest, and Christ shall give thee light.”

How will we answer if we fail our generation?

The harvest is great. The laborers are few. The church has grown fat and lazy on worldly goods.

Oh God, help us!

The sun is going down, and our work is not yet done. Raise up ministers to go without purse or script. Raise up a people to stand with them in prayer and offerings. Let us never resort to gimmicks or manipulation. Let us look only to You, Jesus, for all we need.

This is the hour. This is the call. Will you answer?

JESUS IS THE ANSWER

“This is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him” (1 John 5:14, 15).

Do you have confidence today, my friend? Do you have confidence that Jesus hears your prayers and He will move for you?

Let me tell you—Jesus is a prayer answering God. He knows your need before you even ask. He is a kind and compassionate Savior—He knows how this life is because He has walked here on this earth and He has felt the same agony and challenges you face every day.

Jesus walked through this world and yet He did not sin. He faced the hatred of the religious leaders of His time—but still He stood strong. He watched His own mother as she wept at the Cross—but He still made the conscious decision to follow His destiny—even unto the grave. He bore the stripes for your healing. He withstood the scorn and the mocking. He went not only to death’s door but through death’s door for you.

Satan thought that was the end of Jesus. He thought he had won the battle. But, He was wrong—so wrong!

Jesus walked through the door of death so you wouldn’t have to fear death. “Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?” (1 Corinthians 15:54, 55).

Can’t you just imagine the terror Satan felt when he heard the footsteps of Jesus walking through the corridors of hell? He thought he had won—but then he heard Jesus.

Jesus didn’t come as a visitor. He came as a conqueror—a champion. Jesus took the keys to death, hell and the grave from Satan.

Jesus came up from the grave victorious. He walked and talked with His disciples. They knew He was everything they had ever believed He was. Maybe they had felt downtrodden as they took His lifeless body to the grave. Maybe they felt hopeless when they moved the stone to close what was left of Him away. But, O what a joy, what a hope! Jesus came forth from the grave and not empty-handed.

When Jesus arose and then ascended into heaven—He left so much for you, my friend. He left the answer to all your prayers and all your needs.

Today, if you have a need do not live in despair another minute. Please call us. We want to take your needs to the Lord. If you need healing—Jesus is the answer. If you need salvation—He is the answer. There is no prayer He cannot answer for you. If you are alone and need a friend—He is your friend.

Call the prayerline any time—day or night. It is a free call—1-866-518-2262. We want to pray with and for you right now! Or write us today—we want to send you a prayer cloth. Have confidence today—Jesus will meet your need.

OUR BIBLE COURSE

Patrick Hayes

In the mid-1970's, Brother Hall asked three of us younger ministers to put together a Bible correspondence course for UCCMA. It was not to be a systematic theology or a doctrinaire catechism arguing for any Christian creed against another. I can still hear him.

"Leave all of that out of it. No opinions about embracing or rejecting any group's viewpoints. It has to be something that anyone can learn the Bible from, without sectarian bias. Baptist, Methodist, Catholic, Mormon, Adventist, Calvinist, Anglican, Pentecostal, Charismatic— none of that stuff one way or the other. Understand? No one-God, two-God, three-God ideas. And no end-time theories. Don't try to interpret Isaiah, for instance, or Revelations. Just teach what the Bible says, that's all. All, nothing more. Let people learn the Bible first, and make-up their own minds."

"But what if they draw wrong conclusions?" I asked.

"And what if you've drawn wrong conclusions, Pat? What if I have? What if we all have, all of us? All the way down through the ages, people have fussed and quarreled. You can't stop that. The thing is, most of them have never even read the whole Bible on their own without someone else's voice in their heads telling them what to think about this-that-or-the-other. Not even our own preachers, many of them, know the whole Bible. And just the Bible, and only the Bible. See?"

We nodded at him. "Yes, sir." But he knew that we did not yet know what a challenge it would be. It sounded simple.

"Just start with the first 'In the beginning' of Genesis. Have the student read the chapter and answer questions about what it says. Not what you or the student might think it means. Leave your opinions out of it. Only what the Scripture says, period. Hard to do, you can't imagine, because you're preachers. But do it that way. Then do that for every chapter and book of the Bible, all the way through to the last 'Amen' of Revelations."

Well, we went to work and got it done. It took us a few years. I worked on the narrative books of the Old Testament. Kent worked on the Gospels. Mike focused on the prophetic and poetic books and the Epistles. We were young, but learning. The hardest demand, that we must not comment or preach... well, we failed in that. I look over the Bible Course today and see again and again our insertions of doctrinal biases. But mostly we tried to follow Brother Hall's directive, to present a study guide for thorough Bible reading and contemplation.

I am known today by some as a Bible teacher. People ask me how I "know it so well." They don't know how much I am still learning about it. I do not belong to any "ism" or claim any doctrinal bias. That's Brother Hall, still speaking to me. Whatever gifting I might have has come to me from his assignment to write a study course about the Bible and only the Bible.

We call it GENERAL BIBLE KNOWLEDGE. A student must complete the Old Testament lessons before beginning the New Testament. We offer diplomas for completions, and cap-and-gown graduations.

But these things might sometimes be detrimental to Brother Hall's main idea. "It's not how much you've learned, to hang on the wall; it's how much the Bible opens before you that you yet have to learn in life. Even if you memorize the whole Thing, you still have to live it out to really know it. And that's where the Holy Ghost comes in, to make the Word alive in you."

We at UCCMA would love for you to take this Bible course. It is not very expensive. It will draw you in. You will find yourself pondering the Bible's immensities and its profundities, and opening "the Great Conversation" about God and Christ with people all around you. It will benefit and change their lives as it has yours. Let's get away from the thematic doctrines of TV preaching personalities, and just get into the Scriptures for ourselves. You'll be amazed at what the Spirit of God Alone will teach you.

A simple phone call will get you started.

PARTNER IN THE HARVEST!

The United Christian Church & Ministerial Association is more than an organization—it is a movement birthed from God's heart to our founder, Brother H. Richard Hall and Sister Amelia Lucile Hall, to impact lives, equip laborers, and strengthen churches for kingdom advancement.

We are fervently committed to:

- ♦ Winning souls through Spirit-led outreach and revival.
- ♦ Offering ministerial license and ordination to God-called servants who are ready to fulfill their divine assignment.
- ♦ Assisting churches with the establishment of their 501(c)(3) status, empowering them to operate in legal strength and spiritual authority.

These efforts require prayerful support—not only in intercession but also in financial partnership. We invite you to sow into this fertile ground. Your offering helps us send workers into the vineyard, prepare vessels for leadership, and sustain churches as lighthouses of truth and hope.

Let us walk together in obedience to the Great Commission and fulfill the mandate of Mat. 9:37–38: “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few...”

May the Lord richly bless your giving—bringing increase and multiplying its impact for His glory. Thank you for standing with us in purpose and power as we labor together for the harvest.

To sow into this proven ministry, call our office today at 423-472-7271. Or give securely online at www.uccma.net by clicking the “Donate” button.

Thank you in advance for your faithful support as we press forward to reach the lost for Jesus.

If you're called of God into ministry, consider joining with us at UCCMA. An application is available on page 10.

THE BEAUTY OF HOLINESS

PASTOR MARK MEEKER

The Spirit of the Lord spoke to me the first of the year: “Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God” (2 Cor. 7:1).

You may not know me. Who I am is not as important as “Whose I am.” My wife, Tressie, and I pastor a little Holiness Church in Boone County, WV, the hometown of the J.O. (Jake) Townley family. I can take you right to the property, less than five minutes from our church, where Brother Townley lived.

It was so wonderful when we made the connection of how God brings life in a circle. Some of the older Townley girls were baptized in our little church when it was First Baptist. I consider Sister Paulette Hilton, Brother Don Warren, and Sister Lucille Hall some of my dearest friends. Brother Hall was nice enough to recognize me in the meetings and let me sing a time or two, but he was Brother Hall, so you took that for love. My proudest memory with Brother Don is that he said my organ and Leslie cabinet were the best combination he had ever played. “They’re just so in sync with each other,” he said, a comment that made me proud considering he had played thousands of organs.

My, what promises God has given! Paul was exhorting the Corinthians to cleanse themselves in the flesh and spirit. “Perfecting holiness in the fear of God.” The Lord spoke to me and said, “While you are perfecting holiness, PRESERVE holiness.”

I started thinking about my flesh and spirit. We know our flesh gets out of line, but have you ever had your spirit to get out of line? Not God’s Spirit, it is always in order but what about ours? Remember this verse? “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God . . .” (1 Jn 4:1). We must keep our spirit right and in tune with His Spirit.

We can lead people astray if our spirit gets out of order. Have you ever said or heard someone say, “I have a bad spirit?” I have. We need to regularly check ourselves. Make sure we are always “walking in the spirit.”

My next thought is on holiness—perfecting and preserving it as the scripture instructs. It is up to us to do both. I often weep at what our young generation is missing. The holiness of the churches in where we started. My daddy started out as an old time Freewill Baptist minister, and he received the Holy Ghost in a little Church of God in the Route 44 area where Brother Hall ministered so often. Both of my great Grannies were little Holiness ladies, one of them was a Church of God minister in the 40s and 50s. My first real experience was in a little Holiness church in Salem, VA. Pot belly stove, outside bathrooms with a path, hardwood floors worn out from shouting and an old upright piano with a straight back chair and a few flattop guitars. My, was the glory there—the very Holiness that Isaiah saw, “high and lifted up.” No form, no fashion just a total atmosphere for the worship of a Holy GOD! The music wasn’t professional, the singers weren’t trained, and the dance was definitely not rehearsed! They told me it was the “Holy Dance.” I was hooked! I wanted it all. The holiness, the worship, the presence of Almighty God flowing freely. I even saw a little sister playing a set of kitchen spoons under the anointing of the Holy Ghost.

That little church was packed wall to wall, everyone “got in”, they worshiped, danced, shouted, praised, testified, preached and had a “healing line.” It was all in order, it was all God, and it was ALL this 12-year-old boy needed to be hooked on the “Beauty of Holiness!”

Within weeks I was washing dishes at my little Baptist grandma’s house and right there with my hands in a pan of dishwater the sweet Holy Ghost washed me!! My heart, My soul! He sanctified me in His Holiness and filled me with His wonderful Holy Ghost. I saw Mamaw get a glimpse out of the corner of my eye, and she just went on about her business.

She knew what was going on. I’m still blessed to have her today, she is 97 years old, still blessed to live in her own home and she is one of my biggest supporters, my prayer warrior, my little sanctified Baptist grandma. God will put the Beauty of Holiness in whosoever will ask Him. It is not a thing gone by, it is not just our heritage, it is the way of life He has called us to.

Brother Don, Sister Hall, and Brother Hall are now resting from their labors, and we are the “works [that] do follow them” (Rev. 14:13). We must strive for the same holiness they did—in our worship, our praise, the holy dance, in our songs, our testimony, our preaching, and our prayer lines. In our dress and appearance, let it ALL be to the glory of God in the Name of Jesus Christ. If we exalt Him, the Name above every name, He will fill our houses of prayer with His Holiness, His Glory just like Isaiah saw, just like the light that came down over Brother Branham and Brother Hall’s meetings. Let it be, Lord! Not that men be lifted up, but that He be lifted up and draw all men to HIM!

We do not propose to give God-knowledge or the anointing to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to anyone. God alone calls, anoints, and ordains individuals for their calling.

The gifts and callings of the ministry are given of God and no church organization or minister on this earth can give this anointing.

Solomon & the Proverbs – A Powerful Study with Bro. Pat Hayes

Everything Solomon did was BIG!

He spoke 3,000 proverbs, sang 1005 songs, and married hundreds of women.

Solomon was a poet, dramatist, architect, botanist, biologist, and statesman.

Under his reign, Israel experienced complete peace—the only time in its history. He built Israel’s first temple, centralized the 12 tribes around Jerusalem, and authored three canonical books embraced by both Jews and Christians.

Solomon’s reign stands alone as Israel’s golden age—a time of unity, prosperity, and divine favor.

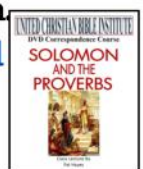

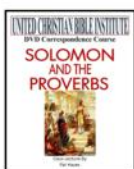

Because of this, many see him as a ‘type’ of Christ’s prophesied reign on earth.

This enriching study includes Bro. Pat Hayes’ classroom lectures on DVD and the printed text for deeper reflection and study.

Special Offering: $99

Discover the wisdom, wonder, and prophetic significance of Solomon’s life and writings.

Perfect for personal growth, group study, or church enrichment.
