A Timely Word from Our Founder

It is time to return to love. Jesus said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend." We must love our fellowman in a volume that will surpass all the evil of the land.

Jesus commanded, "Love your enemies. Forgive your transgressors. Show good for evil." Deceit and false doctrines of satan warp the minds of people 'til there is little trust or love in our midst. We as ambassadors for Jesus, must return unto the multitude the gift of love.

Regardless of what people do to you, love them. Forget the flesh. Look to the spirit of man (herein lies the true individual). Jesus said, "Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man" (Jn. 8:15).

Love is the key to being a true christian. Jesus possessed perfect love; We must possess the same love if we are to inherit eternal life.

Return to love! Return to compassion for souls! Return to mercy! Return to tranquility! Return to temperance. Return to humbleness! Return to wisdom! Return to Faith!

Don't bury your talent. Don't forsake your anointing and your calling. Stand on the Word of God even if everyone forsakes you!

— Brother H. Richard Hall

With God's Help, We Can Forgive

Forgiving someone who has hurt us is not always easy. Sometimes the hurt runs so deep that we may feel as if forgiveness is impossible. We know we should forgive, but our heart struggles to let go.

The good news is that we don't have to do it alone. God can change our heart. He can help us release the anger, bitterness and resentment we have carried far too long. Forgiveness is not something we accomplish through our own strength; it is God's grace working in us.

Jesus taught us how important forgiveness is. He said, "... If ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matthew 6:14-15).

Those are serious words. Forgiveness is not simply a suggestion—it is part of our walk with God.

When forgiving someone seems especially difficult, we should remember Jesus on the cross. He was innocent, yet He was mocked, beaten and crucified. Even in the middle of His suffering, He prayed, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34).

What a beautiful picture of mercy! If Jesus could forgive while suffering such cruelty, He can surely give us the grace to forgive those who have wounded us.

Forgiveness does not mean that what happened was right. It does not mean pretending that we were never hurt, nor does it mean that trust is immediately restored. Some wounds take time to heal. Forgiveness means placing the hurt—and the person who caused it—into God's hands. It means refusing to allow bitterness to take root in our heart.

The Bible tells us, "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you" (Ephesians 4:32).

In my own life, God has shown me that holding on to anger does not heal the wound; it only keeps it open. But when we release that hurt to the Lord, healing can begin. It may not happen all at once. Sometimes we must make the choice to forgive again each time the pain returns. But little by little, God softens our heart and gives us peace.

We all face opportunities to forgive. There may be hurtful words, family wounds, church disagreements or private disappointments that no one else knows about. When those times come, pray before responding in anger. Remember how merciful God has been to you. Speak the truth, but speak it with kindness. Leave revenge in God's hands, and seek peace wherever possible.

If you are struggling to forgive someone today, take that burden to the Lord. Be honest with Him about your hurt. Ask Him to give you strength beyond your own and to change your heart as only He can.

Forgiveness may begin with one prayer and one quiet decision before God: "Lord, I cannot do this by myself, but with Your help, I choose to forgive."

The journey may not be easy, but with God, it is possible. When we let go of bitterness, we make room for the Lord to bring healing, freedom and peace into our lives.

Be sure to check the back cover to see if I'll be ministering in your area. If I'm nearby, make plans to come out and join us for revival. We would love to see you and worship the Lord together!

WORSHIP HIM

A few years ago, my wife & I were visiting Yellowstone National Park. While we were there we saw one of the main attractions of the park, “Old Faithful.” It is a geyser that faithfully erupts approximately every 90 minutes. Everyone is standing and waiting in anticipation of this spectacular natural event.

Then, with a grand explosion of water and steam that shoots an average height of 130 feet high up into the air, you can hear the crowd react with amazement and excitement.

Old Faithful had everyone’s attention! You can hear the comments streaming from the awe-stricken spectators: “Wow!” “Wasn’t that amazing?” “I want to see it again!”

The people had witnessed something so powerful, and so amazing.

How much MORE, we should be in awe of our God, and of all the times we have seen Him pour out His power on us!

We have witnessed the mighty hand of God blessing us, and healing us, and He continues to do “exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think” (Eph. 3:20). Our Lord deserves our worship!

“But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him” (John 4:23).

The hour has come and NOW IS that true worshippers will WORSHIP HIM!

LET GOD HAVE HIS WAY!

Our ways are not God’s ways; we must commit our ways to Him. Jesus prayed, “Nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt” (Matthew 26:39). This is the greatest hour to obey God’s calling. What we do for Jesus Christ must be done right now!

“Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee” (Isaiah 60:1). Release the power God has placed within you. Jesus commanded His ministers to heal the sick, cast out devils, raise the dead and preach the Gospel. We cannot do it in our own name or in the name of a church—only in the name of Jesus!

“Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever” (Hebrews 13:8). He is the Word made flesh, our Redeemer and soon-coming King. His power is just as real today as it was in Bible days. What He commanded His Church to do can still be done through the Holy Ghost and in His mighty name.

God promised, “I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh” (Joel 2:28). The harvest is ready, and revival is reaching the world. Work while it is day!

Beware of false teaching, stand firmly upon the Word, and be ready for the coming of the Lord. Let no one stop you. Arise, shine, and go in Jesus’ name!

SOULS ARE CRYING!

Every day, souls are searching for hope, families are struggling, and people are waiting to hear that Jesus still saves, heals, and delivers. God has placed before us an open door of ministry, and we are determined to walk through it while there is still time.

This calling requires more than good intentions. It takes faithful prayer, devoted workers, and the financial means to continue reaching those who need the Gospel. We accept this responsibility with grateful hearts, but we cannot fulfill it without the help of those who believe in what God has called us to do.

Your giving makes you a partner in every life touched through this ministry. Each tithe, offering, and special gift helps us preach the Word, strengthen believers, encourage the brokenhearted, and carry the message of salvation to those who are lost.

Would you prayerfully consider standing with us? No gift is too small when it is placed in God's hands. He can take what we willingly offer and use it to accomplish far more than we could ever accomplish alone.

The harvest is ready, and the need is urgent. This is not the hour to draw back or become weary. Together, we must continue working, praying, giving, and believing until every possible soul has been reached.

Please ask the Lord what He would have you do. If He leads you to give, we promise that your contribution will be prayerfully and carefully used for His work and His glory.

If you are unable to send an offering, we still deeply value your support. Please call, write, or email us and let us know that you are standing with us in prayer.

Together, with God's help, we can carry this Gospel forward and complete the work He has placed before us.
