Not a Trivial Pursuit

Happy New Year, Tabernacle family! If you're anything like me, you may still be finding stray bits of wrapping paper under the couch and discovering cookies you swore you didn't eat. Christmas seems to disappear as quickly as it arrives, but its message lingers with us: God stepped into our world, into our mess, and into our lives with grace and hope. That truth gives us a pretty solid foundation for launching into 2026—even if our New Year's resolutions are already on life support.

As a church, I want us to enter this new year with a renewed sense of spiritual direction—not just trying harder, but pursuing God with intention and joy. And that leads me to our brand-new sermon series launching in January:

"Not a Trivial Pursuit: A Passionate Chase After God's Heart."

The title is a playful nod to the board game many of us have played during the holidays—where knowing obscure trivia somehow makes you a champion. But unlike the game, our faith isn't about collecting Bible facts or performing certain routines every Sunday. Following Jesus is a pursuit—a real, sometimes messy, always meaningful chase after God's heart.

That's why we're looking at the life of David. Scripture calls him a man after God's own heart, even though he made enough mistakes to remind us that we're all in good company. David battled giants, wrote beautiful worship songs, made legendary decisions, and also made a few that probably wouldn't make the church newsletter. Through every high and low, his heart kept turning toward God—and that's the part of his story that matters most.

My hope is that this series will meet all of us right where we start 2026—some of us energized, some of us exhausted, and some of us already wondering how it's January again. But no matter where we are, God invites us not into trivial religion but into a passionate relationship with Him. A daily pursuit. A steady returning. A wholehearted "yes."

So let's step into this new year with joy, hope, and a lot of grace—trusting that God is leading us, shaping us, and inviting us deeper into His heart.

I'm grateful to begin the journey with you!

~ Pastor Matt
